The Indigo Child is a boy or girl who displays a new and unusual set of psychological attributes, revealing a pattern of behavior generally undocumented before. Throughout this work, Carroll and Tober bring together some very fine minds (doctors, educators, psychologists, and more) who shed light on the Indigo Child phenomenon. These children come in "knowing" who they are—so they must be recognized, celebrated for their exceptional qualities, and guided with love and care. This book is a must for parents!

Indigos are special people that come to Earth to help others. They often have an intense, warrior-like presence that may intimidate others. They come to Earth to speak their truth and cannot tolerate injustice or lies of any kind. They are sensitive and sometimes feel like they absorb the world's problems. They feel misunderstood and like they are never quite normal. They may have felt like they were dropped off on the wrong planet at some point in their lives. Indigo Adults may have had dysfunctional childhoods. The anger they have always felt deep down may cause them to want to express themselves in out-of-the-ordinary ways. They may be pierced or tattooed. They are often unable to filter the words that come out of their mouths. They may surprise or even irritate you with their truth, but they are usually willing to say the things that others are thinking but just afraid to say. They are soldiers, police officers, protesters, whistle blowers, and defenders. They are children that sometimes present a challenge for their families. They have an abundance of energy, and anger is a natural part of the essence of an Indigo. Sometimes they don't know what makes them angry, but that anger helps to propel them towards their life purpose. They are here to lead the way by traditional or nontraditional means. They will change the rules that no longer make sense and defend the ones that do. They are light. They are love. They are important. They are Indigo Warriors.

The Great Shift is a progress report from the field and the messages are positive. "You don't have to logically do anything but 'show up' with spiritual intent, and the DNA quantum field is activated in your body," Kryon says. He tells us to expect changes and peace we may have never thought to see in our lifetimes, even in the Middle East. He says, "God is not a controlling force. Look for the love." Tom Kenyon channeling the Hathors, a group consciousness entity, reminds us, "It is your attention to an event that makes it conscious." Kenyon also explains what channeled material is, which is important in understanding how we co-create our own world: "From the standpoint of neuropsychology, channeled information is just another expression of our brain/mind potential . . . a movement into the unknown territory of one's own psyche to see what emerges in terms of contact (with other intelligences) and information." The Hathors message for what is now and what is to come: "It is so simple, it is forgotten. . . . Find a way to live your life in joy and happiness." Mary Magdalen, through Tom Kenyon, makes it clear that restoring the balance between male and female energies will mean good things for men as well as women and will reignite our creative potency. Patricia Cori channeling the High Council of Sirius reminds us that the future is never predetermined and the past is an illusion - different for each of us. Lee Carroll has been channeling Kryon for many years and is the author of Kryon books, most recently Lifting the Veil: The New Energy Apocalypse. As Lee Carroll he is the co-author of The Indigo Children. He and his partner, Jan Tober, began Kryon light groups in 1991 and now host groups around the world. Carroll lives in San Diego, California.

What secrets are hidden in her past . . . ? Jewelry designer Gareth James is still coming to terms with the astounding revelation in BLACK SWAN RISING that she is the last in a long line of women sworn to protect the world from evil. Now she has received a sign from Will Hughes, the 400-year-old vampire who once helped her defeat the evil threatening to destroy New York City. Hughes, tortured by his own violent history which is vividly reenacted here, has asked her to join him on a quest to rid himself of his curse of vampirism. While looking for Will in Paris, Gareth encounters a number of mysterious figures-an ancient botanist metamorphosed into the oldest tree in Paris, a gnome who lives under the Labyrinth at the Jardin des Plantes, a librarian at the Institut Oceanographique, and a dryad in the Luxembourg Gardens. Each encounter leads Gareth closer to finding Will Hughes, but she realizes that she's not the only one who's trying to find the way to the magical world called the Summer Country. As Gareth struggles to understand her family legacy, each answer she finds only leads to more questions—and to more danger.... Indigo children are bright, intuitive, strong-willed, and sometimes self-destructive individuals. They are often labeled (and misdiagnosed) as having ADD or ADHD because they won't comply with established rules and patterns; and they may exhibit behavioral problems at home and at school. In The Care and Feeding of Indigo Children, Doreen Virtue, Ph.D., explores the psyche of these special kids and offers alternative solutions to Ritalin based on her extensive research and interviews with child-care experts, teachers, parents, and the Indigo Children themselves. Read the accounts of these remarkable children as they explain why they act-out, are aggressive or withdrawn; and what they want from the adults in their lives. You'll also be fascinated by the psychic experiences that these kids have had in their lives so far. This is a groundbreaking book that can positively affect the ways in which you interact with your child, altering the shape of their future in miraculous ways.

Are you intensely idealistic and find it hard to understand people who are petty and only care about short sighted goals? Are you, in other words, an alien with a mission?
