Dante's epic poem Inferno is brought to the reader complete in this superbly translated hardcover edition. As the opening part of Dante's epic of poetry, The Divine Comedy, The Inferno introduces Dante as a character. We see the poet lost in a dark wood, and promptly confronted by three mighty beasts: a leopard, a lion, and a she-wolf. Symbolic of sinful behaviour and desires, the trio of creatures pursue Dante into darkness, wherein Virgil - a deceased Roman poet representing human cognition and reason - appears. Initially unsure of Virgil's intentions, Dante is persuaded when the poet mentions that Beatrice Portinari, a young woman Dante knew and a symbol of love, sent him to find Dante with instructions from the Virgin Mary. It is thus that their journey to the underworld begins, with Virgil to act as Dante's guide through the malevolent environs.

Why can't we convince others? And why won't people listen? We say great things to people. We offer great products to prospects. We share our vision and passion with others. And they don't believe us, they don't buy, and they don't share our vision and passion. We say great things, but people don't believe us or act on our message. Why? Well, we don't need more good things to say. Instead, we need to learn how to get people to believe and trust the good things we are saying already. It's not about the price. It's not about the salesman's breath. It is not about the leader's PowerPoint presentation. It is all about the magical first few seconds when we meet people. What happens? In the first few seconds, people make an instant decision to: 1. Trust us. Believe us. Or, in the first few seconds, people make an instant decision to: 2. Turn on the salesman alarm. Put on the "too good to be true" filter. Be skeptical. Look for "the catch." This decision is immediate, and unfortunately, usually final. Tom "Big Al" Schreiber shows us exactly how to build a bond of trust and belief with prospects in seconds. How? By talking directly to the decision-making part of the brain, the subconscious mind. In this book, "How To Get Instant Trust, Belief, Influence And Rapport! 13 Ways To Create Open Minds By Talking To The Subconscious Mind," we will learn easy four- and five-word micro-phrases and simple, natural techniques that you can master within seconds. Yes, this is easy to do! Our message should be inside of other people's heads, not bouncing off their foreheads. Our obligation is to get our message inside of their heads so they will have options and choices in their lives. Now, if we can't get people to trust and believe our message, then we will effectively be withholding our message from them. Use these short, easy, tested, clear techniques to build that instant rapport with other people. Then, everything else is easy. If you are a leader, a salesman, a network marketer, an influencer, a teacher, or someone who needs to communicate quickly and efficiently, this book is for you. Order your copy now!

Street Fighting Man chronicles the experiences of a group of young Brooklyn toughs who, coming of age in the emerging Sixties counterculture, turn to playing rock and roll music to escape the streets. Kevin O'Brien's street fighting consumes an inordinate amount of time. He's not as adept as others with his fists and so he takes to carrying deadly weapons. Following a brush with the law, Kevin immerses himself in the drums in an attempt to "straighten himself out." The transition is less than seamless, however, and trouble continues to stalk him into the Sixties renaissance.
