She thought being a POW was the worst thing that could happen to her...she was wrong. Navy Nurse Avery Nelson never dreamed she'd be taken hostage during her deployment in Afghanistan. She's assisting local women with healthcare, not fighting in a war. But digging her way out of her would-be grave turns out to be the battle of her life. She's not the type to simply lay down and die, or sit around crying, waiting for someone to save her...though Avery can't deny it's a massive relief when the very SEAL she's been flirting with for months comes to her rescue. Cole "Rex" Kingston has saved his fair share of women over his time as a SEAL, but no mission has ever seemed as important as the one to find Avery Nelson. Digging the woman out of the rubble of a mountainside in Afghanistan hammers home to them both just how short life is, and they waste no time acting on their attraction, getting closer as Cole helps Avery deal with the aftermath of her ordeal. But someone isn't happy that Avery didn't die in the mountains...and they'll do anything to make sure she doesn't live long enough to talk about what she might've heard and seen while deployed. **

Is it ever truly possible to atone for killing someone? How far would you be willing to go to try? After the death of his son in a freak accident, DI Harlan Miller's life is spiralling out of control. He's drinking too much. His marriage and career are on the rocks. But things are about to get even worse. A booze-soaked night out and a single wild punch leave a man dead and Harlan facing a manslaughter charge. Fast-forward four years. Harlan's prison term is up, but life on the outside holds little promise.

Divorced, alone, consumed with guilt, he thinks of nothing beyond atoning for the death he caused. But how do you make up for depriving a wife of her husband and two young boys of their father? Then something happens, something terrible, yet something that holds out a twisted kind of hope for Harlan - the dead man's youngest son is abducted. From that moment Harlan's life has only one purpose - finding the boy. So begins a frantic race against time that leads him to a place darker than anything he experienced as a policeman and a stark moral choice that compels him to question the law he once enforced. This Book is part of the Reality that the author arrived at in terms of our existence as human beings on this Planet Earth and the certainty realised by the Author that Creation is an Entity unfolded by God Sri Krishna who is available to satya-advaita yogis to go through the process of consulting Him as Sadhguru and getting to find out what is expected of a human being if he is to live to 'ananda' and peace of mind as his sole preoccupation. The author provides the ideas and incidents that allured him to delve into the structure of Reality. He describes the evolution of the determination of his conception of reality that the universe functions in and outlines its applications in the daily life of living beings.
