The Shaking and the Arising! Robert Rite We live in spiritually-confusing, difficult times. It is getting harder every year to be faithful followers of Christ and the church he established. When those in authority support popular trends that go against firmly-rooted teachings, where do we turn for answers? It is hard to find solid teaching in a world where grey is the preferred color. Will we know with certainty if we are living in the last days? Will the majority of the world who live during the end times even recognize that there is anything wrong? Ultimately, the truth will lie just underneath the surface of world events, being only visible to those who earnestly search for it. Fortunately, God has not left those who long for the truth without the means of finding it. Many of those answers were prophetically handed down to St. John and then passed on to us in the book of Revelation. This condensed, but thorough, verse-by-verse scriptural analysis brings vivid clarity to the ancient prophecies of St. John. It offers solid answers to hard questions, such as: Who is the Antichrist? Will the church have to suffer through the great tribulation? What are the signs that precede Jesus' return? What role will the pope play in the last days? Although countless books have been written about the Apocalypse, this devotional commentary is truly unique. It successfully unlocks the hidden structure of the book of Revelation while providing an ancient, yet fresh, perspective on its meaning. It will also help you prepare for Jesus' return and answer the most difficult questions you have always had about the end times.
