 Now in its second edition, the MHRA Style Guide is an indispensable tool for authors and editors of scholarly books, contributors to academic publications, and students preparing theses. The Style Guide succeeds the best-selling MHRA Style Book, five editions of which were published from 1971 to 1996. Though originally designed for use in connection with the publications of the Modern Humanities Research Association, the Style Book became a standard book of reference, particularly in the humanities, and has been adopted by many other authors, editors, and publishers. This new edition of the Style Guide has been revised and updated by a subcommittee of the MHRA. It provides comprehensive guidance on the preparation of copy for publication and gives clear and concise advice on such matters as spelling (including the spelling of proper names and the transliteration of Slavonic names), abbreviations, punctuation, the use of capitals and italics, dates and numbers, quotations, notes, and references. Chapters on indexing, the preparation of theses and dissertations, and proof correcting are also included

"The signature undertaking of the Twenty-Second Edition was clarifying the QC practices necessary to perform the methods in this manual. Section in Part 1000 were rewritten, and detailed QC sections were added in Parts 2000 through 7000. These changes are a direct and necessary result of the mandate to stay abreast of regulatory requirements and a policy intended to clarify the QC steps considered to be an integral part of each test method. Additional QC steps were added to almost half of the sections."-- Pref. p. iv.

Qu'il prenne la forme de la citation, du plagiat ou de la récupération, le remploi est une pratique culturelle essentielle pour comprendre ce qu'il est convenu d'appeler la « Renaissance du XIIe siècle » et, plus généralement, la culture des XIe-XIIIe siècles. Dans le domaine littéraire, il s'agit de déterminer les modes - explicites ou implicites - de la réinsertion d'éléments significatifs perçus comme anciens, dans une dialectique subtile entre l'« ancien » et le « nouveau » et l'ancien rénové. Il en va de même en histoire où, depuis le XIe siècle, les termes de renovatio et de reformatio permettent de caractériser plusieurs ordres d'activités dans les champs politiques, religieux et institutionnels. Dans l'architecture, enfin, le recyclage et la copie de thèmes décoratifs, voire la récupération d'éléments constructifs, sont au cœur des pratiques médiévales. Cet ouvrage réunit les contributions d'historiens, d'archéologues, de spécialistes de la littérature, de l'histoire de l'art et de l'histoire du droit.
