"It is now generally accepted that excellence in corporate governance depends critically on the contribution of independent or nonexecutive directors.
 They alone among the directors can provide an entirely non-partisan view of a company's affairs." "Independent directors play an essential role in creating corporate strategy and monitoring executive performance. Those outside the company are increasingly looking to them for improved corporate governance, particularly in the wake of major failures such as Polly Peck, BCCI and the Maxwell interested in the subject such as executive directors and chairmen who will work with the independent directors in the board
