Avvocato e dirigente editoriale ma soprattutto acuto storico e brillante cronista della musica afro-americana dal secondo dopoguerra agli anni Ottanta, nonché attivissimo organizzatore di concerti e festival, Arrigo Polillo (1919-1984) è stato uno dei maggiori protagonisti, a livello internazionale, dell'opera di diffusione culturale del jazz e indimenticabile direttore della rivista Musica jazz. Dopo un approfondito studio che colloca Arrigo Polillo nel contesto internazionale della critica jazz, il volume offre le riflessioni personali e professionali del figlio Roberto, che per anni ha seguito il padre come fotografo, numerose testimonianze di musicisti, esperti e organizzatori (Ambrosetti, Biriaco, Buono, Castelli, Cogno, D'Andrea, Fasoli, Federighi, Linzi, Pagnotta, Patruno, Piacentino, Rava, Salvatore, Sessa) e alcuni scritti dello stesso Polillo su grandi del jazz come Louis Armstrong, Duke Ellington, Thelonious Monk e John Coltrane. Infine, in appendice, una eccezionale serie di documenti inediti, tra i quali le corrispondenze epistolari del critico con i maggiori musicisti, organizzatori, produttori e studiosi americani ed europei.

According to Larry Teal, the best method of learning to play the saxophone is to study with a competent teacher. Teal's studies were mostly of instruments other than the saxophone, but as a student at a Chautauqua summer session, he came under the influence of Georges Barrère, the eminent French flutist. He played bass clarinet with the Detroit Symphony, but he continued to be absorbed by the saxophone. As a result of his acquired expertise and growing reputation, he was appointed to a full-time faculty position as a saxophone teacher by the University of Michigan -- the first ever to receive such an appointment from a major university. During his 21-year tenure, he attracted students from all over, thus exerting an ever widening influence on saxophone teaching and performing.

EDUCARE ALLA MUSICA... EDUCARE CON LA MUSICA ha come tema principale la preparazione alla disciplina musicale non limitandosi a esposizioni teoriche, ma inserendo tale disciplina in un dibattito complesso che richiama la dicotomia tra i concetti d'istruzione ed educazione. Esso riassume le conoscenze dei due autori, acquisite dall'esperienza didattica e coadiuvate dagli studi specifici. Grazie alla scelta di uno stile semplice, insieme ad un lessico in prevalenza colloquiale, si vuole fornire al lettore dei consigli pratici per l'apprendimento della disciplina in oggetto. La prima parte prevalentemente teorica, trova immediata attuazione nella seconda, proponendo a tutti coloro che si apprestano ad entrare nel mondo della didattica, un modello pratico di insegnamento strumentale, in particolare del Saxofono, nella Scuola Secondaria di I Grado. Gli autori si augurano di aver creato oltre che un valido supporto a coloro che si avvicineranno al mondo dell'insegnamento, un interessante argomento per tutti gli appassionati del meraviglioso mondo della musica.

How can the study of religions and non-religious world views contribute to intercultural education in schools in Europe? An important recommendation from the Committee of Ministers of the Council of Europe (Recommendation CM/Rec(2008)12 on the dimension of religions and non-religious convictions within intercultural education) aimed to explain the nature and objectives of this form of education. Signposts goes much further by providing advice to policy makers, schools (including teachers, senior managers and governors) and teacher trainers on tackling issues arising from the recommendation. Taking careful account of feedback from education officials, teachers and teacher trainers in Council of Europe member states, Signposts gives advice, for example, on clarifying the terms used in this form of education; developing competences for teaching and learning, and working with different didactical approaches; creating "safe space" for moderated student-to-student dialogue in the classroom; helping students to analyse media representations of religions; discussing non-religious world views alongside religious perspectives; handling human rights issues relating to religion and belief; and linking schools (including schools of different types) to one another and to wider communities and organisations. Signposts is not a curriculum or a policy statement. It aims to give policy makers, schools and teacher trainers in the Council of Europe member states, as well as others who wish to use it, the tools to work through the issues arising from interpretation of the recommendation to meet the needs of individual countries. Signposts results from the work of an international panel of experts convened jointly by the Council of Europe and the European Wergeland Centre, and is written on the group's behalf by Professor Robert Jackson.

The "Goldenberg book" has been used by generations of orchestral mallet players to develop their skills. As well as studies and etudes, this book includes excerpts of major orchestral repertoire for keyboard percussion instruments. This edition, edited by Tony Cirone, includes phrasings that were inherent in the music but not specifically written out. Stickings are also addressed: the original stickings are in uppercase letters, and the added stickings are in lowercase. This book is the primary source for keyboard percussion players to learn technique and orchestral repertoire.
