Writers WriteGoal: A Goal is what your POV character wants at the beginning of the Scene. The Goal must be specific and it must be clearly definable. The reason your POV character must have a Goal is that it makes your character proactive. Your character is not passively waiting for the universe to deal him Great Good. Writing The Perfect Scene: Advanced Fiction Writing

TipsIn your first scene, however, your main goal is to keep your reader interested. You do that through focusing not on overall meaning but on the four elements that make a first scene compelling: character, conflict, specificity, and credibility. CHARACTER: WHO GOES THERE? Your opening should give the reader a person to focus on. The Very Beginning:

Your Opening Scene - Writer's Digest Scenes, individual story units smaller than chapters (but somewhat self-contained), show us sequences of actions and incidents that reveal place and time, characters' actions, reactions or dilemmas.
