BRIANA HOUSTON

Moon in the Water Penguin

This modern-day Sense and Sensibility is a witty story about two sisters: Liza, a would-be poet who spends miserable days as a legal secretary; and Bette a graduate student writing her dissertation on Toast in the English Novel. Bette has taken to eating only what the characters she is writing about would eat: boiled eggs on toast, minemeat, nice cups of tea...Liza's a bit concerned. She's also worried about the status of her relationship with her actor boyfriend, Gregor. They're not living together, and that's a problem. Then there's the issue of Liza's career, or lack thereof. Can dog-walking be considered a vocation? Liza's beginning to think so. Mercifully, Bette is merely a local phone call away. Throughout this hilarious novel, the sisters deal with unemployment, infidelity, interfering parents, Hollywood, lemmings, a pregnancy, and a wedding. The Perfect Elizabeth is as indulgent and cathartic as a pint of Haagen-Dazs.

Defying his Charm Harvard University Press

TO: EVAN HANSON FROM: MEREDITH

WATERS SUBJECT: OUR SECRET PAST

Which probably isn't even a secret now that I'm working at Hanson Media.

Believe me, Evan, didn't plan this when I took the job. All I know is twelve years ago you left town without so much as a kiss goodbye. Now you're back and when I'm with you I feel like the years apart never happened. But I promised myself not to fall in love again...especially with you. If only you'd stop looking at me that way! How are we supposed to work together and save your family business when all I can think about is dancing to that romantic song again? Soon you'll even have me believing in second chances....

The Perfect Elizabeth Ballantine Books
Sal Attracelli met Laci Anderson three years ago at his brother's wedding. At the time, he had thought she was too young for him. But the memory of her trembling in his arms during their one dance would not leave him. Now, he was out to win her heart and was willing to enact an elaborate ruse in order to bring her closer. For Laci, the impression Sal left at the wedding had made him impossible to forget. But now he was pursuing Laci with all the charm and sex appeal he had at his disposal, which was considerable. At first, Laci refused involvement with the sexy CEO, but he tore down her defenses. Her job and its responsibilities are swept away by the mad passion he inflames within her made. All that is left is her new dream of enfolding herself within the arms of a forbidden man.

Ways to screw up the MMA comeback
I've been working so hard on: 1. Check out my trainer's little sister in front of him, which gets me hit in the head 2. Make excuses to stay at the gym afterhours so I can watch her face scrunch up while she balances the books 3. Forget that she's leaving at the end of the summer and we're supposed to be sticking to just friends 4. Get caught making out with her, earning even more hellacious training sessions, along with a warning to stay away 5. The Intimate, Intricate Rescue Kelly Ketchell

Vienna Stratton knew she only had herself to blame. You didn't let yourself become indebted to a man like Dane Davenport, no matter how badly you needed his help. As his personal assistant, she was very aware that the globally successful CEO was ruthless and unforgiving. Of course, if she'd known he'd request that she be his wife for twelve months, she'd have hesitated in accepting his help. Because what she'd learned from Dane was that the devil wasn't ugly and terrorising. He was seductive and captivating. He hummed with whispers of temptation – the temptation to sin and surrender, to let him brand and possess you. He awakened every need and fantasy you had. He could even make you love him.

Falling for the Boss Harlequin / SB Creative

Avatar: The Last Airbender meets Gladiator in the first book in this epic fantasy duology in which two warriors must decide where their loyalties lie as an ancient war between immortals threatens humanity—from Sara Raasch, the New York Times bestselling author of the Snow Like Ashes series, and Kristen Simmons, acclaimed author of Pacifica and The Deceivers. Perfect for fans of An Ember in the Ashes, And I Darken, and The Winner's Curse. Ash is descended from a long line of gladiators, and she knows the brutal nature of war firsthand. But after her mother dies in an arena, she vows to avenge her by overthrowing her fire god, whose temper has stripped her country of its resources. Madoc grew up fighting on the streets to pay his family's taxes. But he hides a dangerous secret: he doesn't have the earth god's powers like his opponents. His elemental gift is something else—something that hasn't been seen in centuries. When an attempted revenge plot goes dangerously wrong, Ash inadvertently throws the fire and earth gods into a conflict that can only be settled by deadly, lavish gladiator games, throwing Madoc in Ash's path. She realizes that his powers are the weapon her rebellion needs—but Madoc won't jeopardize his family, regardless of how intrigued he is by the beautiful warrior. But when the gods force Madoc's hand, he and Ash uncover an ancient war that will threaten more than one immortal—it will unravel the world.

Love's Not Terrifying Silhouette

She'd told him that they wouldn't work! Princess Shantra had explained, in very great detail, to Sheik Lathir del Hassam, Ruler of Piora, that she could never measure up to his first wife's vivacious and exciting reputation. But did he listen to her? No! The man insisted that a match between them would work. Now she was married to the man, trying to figure out how to make him love her when he had such a fabulous first wife who had tragically died. Sheik Laithir had vowed never to marry again. After his first, disastrous marriage, he never wanted to contemplate putting himself, or the citizens of Piora through another wife like that. But then Princess Shantra stepped into his world. She was refreshing and honest, kind and creative. And she responded to his slightest touch! The lovely princess didn't think she could measure up to his first wife? Good! She would be perfect!

Not That Kind of Guy J. Sterling

All I want is Branson Ford. I've been starry-eyed for my handsome boss since the day I started working for him at Empire Media. Problem is, he doesn't see me as anything more than his sweet assistant. I need help becoming a vixen.

I need someone to teach me how to be sensual, how to be desired, and how to get the man I've pined over for the last two years. So, I enlist the help of my co-worker. My very sexy, very charming co-worker, Hunter Johnstone. Hunter loves the thrill of the chase. He's spontaneous, honest, and just the man I need for a lesson in passion. When he suggests we start a fake relationship, I think he's crazy, but who am I to question his jealousy-inducing ways? His little trick works—maybe too well. The line between friends and lovers is blurred, but maybe that's because it was never really there. And just as I'm about to start seeing clearly, my wish comes true.

I'm hopeless with men. I attract all the wrong ones, and my landlord is top of the list. I need a job, and fast, but instead I'm in the back of a perfect stranger's car, letting him do things to me that I've only dreamed of... Caden isn't used to meeting beautiful women on the street. As an attractive billionaire, he's even less used to them running away. But then his mystery woman shows up as his new assistant, and he's going to punish her for disappearing on him. A punishment which soon morphs into something else altogether. Keeley can't believe her luck. Her new job comes with some...orgasmic perks, but Caden Fox is renowned for having a short attention span, especially when it comes to companionship. Does she dare trust him with her heart, as well as her body, or will her fears and his rivals' machinations tear them apart forever?

Eve is kidnapped and it's Mitch's job to get her back to safety. But traipsing through the jungle wasn't Eve's idea of a great time - especially when following behind a man who could easily impersonate a mountain. Passion flames in the heat of the jungle, but can love maintain once Mitch and Eve are back in civilization? Mitch realizes that there's so much more to Eve than he initially realized, and some of it could be dangerous. She's not the rich, spoiled debutante he'd assumed. But who is she?

Romantic Acquisition Penguin

He would never be played for a fool! Stavros Teresi was furious when he learned that one of his previous mistresses was going to release a tell-all book about him. He had to stop her! And as soon as he met the beautiful, spunky Annie, he had a two-part plan. What he hadn't expected was to discover that the gorgeous baker was more than just frosting deep. She was more like a jelly donut - sweet and wonderful, exciting both inside and out. Something about her called to his soul and soothed the angry beast. He also hadn't expected to find out that she'd embezzled over one million dollars from him! Annie Stevenson prided herself on two things: her creative, crazy donut flavors and her ability to run a kick-butt bakery. Until one day when she realized that she'd been robbed! Now she couldn't pay the rent on her business space! Her only option is to appeal for a bit more time to resolve this latest crisis. Meeting Stavros Teresi, the building's tall, hunky, oh-so-fabulously-scary owner was a shock. And she was even more stunned when he proposed! Yes, it would be a fake marriage. But as she stared up into his challenging eyes, Annie realized that this man needed her. And she...maybe...needed him? So when he accuses her of stealing from him, her whole world is shattered. Could she find the true culprit? And when she found this person, could she ever forgive Stavros for thinking she could commit such a heinous crime?
