This report
from the Education
Committee
looks at the administration
of examinations
for 15-19 year
olds in England. The Committee
expresses serious
concerns
about incentives in
the exam
system and
about
competition
on syllabus
content.
Incentives in

the system
should be changed so
the downward
pressure
through the competition of exam boards
is mitigated.
The
Committee
considers a number of options to change
incentives,
including: (i) A
single board.
This offers a
simpler
system, with no risk of
competition,
but the Committee
believes the cost, risk and disruption
outweigh the benefits; (ii) Franchising of subjects to

exam boards.
This removes
syllabus
competition,
but again has
downsides; (3)
Or the current system of multiple boards. The Committee
sees no
benefit in
competition
on syllabus
content, but the setting
and marking
of exams and associated
administration
, if properly
regulated,
could generate incentives and drive quality
up, offering
value for money to schools and colleges. The

Committee also recommends the development of national syllabuses, accredited by Ofqual. The syllabuses would be developed by exam boards in conjunction with learned bodies and employer organisations and could therefore retain the benefits of competition on quality and the incentive for exam boards to innovate. Fall Enrollment in Colleges and Universities	Foundation Books These Collections Of The Official Past Papers Of The Gce O Level Examinations From The University Of Cambridge International Examinations Has Been Developed For Students Of Gce O Level. Changing Schools in an Era of Globalization

Hodder Education

In some hands, history can be an inspirational and rewarding subject, yet in others it can seem dry and of little relevance.

Learning to Teach History in the Secondary School, now in its fifth edition and established as one of the leading texts for all history student teachers, enables you to learn to teach history in a way that pupils will find interesting, enjoyable and purposeful. It incorporates a wide range of ideas about the teaching of history with practical suggestions for classroom practice. The fifth edition has been thoroughly updated in the light of recent developments in the field of history education. The book contains chapters on:

- Purposes and benefits of school history

- Planning strategies
- Teaching approaches and methods
- Developing pupils' historical understanding
- Ensuring inclusion
- New technologies in the history classroom
- Assessment and examinations
- Your own continuing professional development

Each chapter includes suggestions for further reading, weblinks to useful resources and a range of tasks enabling you to put learning into practice in the classroom. Written by experts in the field, Learning to Teach History in the Secondary School offers all training and newly qualified teachers comprehensive and accessible guidance to support the journey towards becoming an inspirational and engaging history teacher.

With the recent scrapping of GCSEs fresh in everyone's minds, The O Level Book is the perfect book to settle that age-old argument between the generations: were the exams of yesteryear really harder than anything children have to face today in the age of calculators and spell checkers? Are contemporary kids less intelligent than previous generations? Here is the chance to find out as the whole family pit their wits against one another in the ultimate generation game, contrasting the schooling of yesteryear with modern educational practices. Testing you on a range of old-school topics: English Language; General Science; Geography and History; Household Cookery; Mathematics. A wonderfully nostalgic yet testing anthology, The O Level Book encourages you to dust off your slide rules and get your thinking caps on to see who will come out on top in your family! Cambridge International AS and A Level Biology The Stationery Office This book provides a one-stop resource for mathematics educators, policy makers and all who are interested in learning more about the why, what and how of mathematics education in Singapore. The content is organized

The first book to explore the development of Singapore's much-talked-about education and examination system, this volume juxtaposes examinations with its immediate context of education and wider context of politics, economy and society. The study covers three broad historical periods: Examinations in Singapore from 1891 to 1945; The Post-War Years from 1946 to the 1970s; and Charting Our Destiny from the 1980s to 2007. In the British period up to 1941, the local examinations were conducted by the vernacular schools, and external examinations by the University of Cambridge Local Examinations Syndicate. There was a lack of systematic effort to establish a uniform system of education and examinations. During the Japanese Occupation, examinations were conducted by the Japanese authorities and, unexpectedly, the Cambridge examinations continued in the Sime Road Camp. In the post-war period and particularly after Singapore was granted self-government, the establishment of a national education system was followed by the emergence of national examinations: the Primary School Leaving Examinations and the

Singapore-Cambridge GCE N/O/A Levels for every school-going child in Singapore. Thereafter, the nature of national examinations evolved with the changing needs of education and the nation. At the turn of the century, with the Ministry of Education's decision to take greater control of examinations, the Singapore Examinations and Assessment Board was established, to oversee new developments in examinations. Unlike most literature on education where examinations are often mentioned as an outcome of educational goals and objectives, this book focuses on examinations per se. Examinations have gained a momentum of their own, and it is interesting to note the development of examinations against the backdrop of the broader history of Singapore and of education in Singapore. Sample Chapter(s). Chapter 1: Trace the development of examinations in Singapore during the British colonial period up to 1941. (3,043 KB).
