The role of museums in enhancing well-being and improving health through social intervention is one of the foremost topics of importance in the museums sector today. With an aging population and emerging policies on the social responsibilities of museums, the sector is facing an unprecedented challenge in how to develop services to meet the needs of its communities in a more holistic and inclusive way. This book sets the scene for the future of museums where the health and well-being of communities is top of the agenda. The authors draw together existing research and best practice in the area of museum interventions in health and social care and offer a detailed overview of the multifarious outcomes of such interactions, including benefits and challenges. This timely book will be essential reading for museum professionals, particularly those involved in access and education, students of museums and heritage studies, as well as practitioners of arts in health, art therapists, care and community workers.

 Micah Green, Charlene Thomas, Eric Baites and Jasmine "Jazzy" Sinclair are all on the hunt for SATISFACTION. Micah is the owner of the hottest restaurant in town. She is a drop dead gorgeous force of nature who seeks her fulfillment with whomever she likes. Eric is in a state of recovery after his fiancé walks out on him leaving nothing behind except her stiletto imprints on his heart. Battered emotionally and physically by a man that she hates, Jazzy is suddenly forced to stand up for herself and do the unthinkable to secure her safety. After discovering her husband's infidelity, Charlene reluctantly begins to accept that no problem is ever solved through denial. SATISFACTION is a fiercely sexy and dramatic story about a complex ensemble of young professionals and their respective journeys to claim the desires of their hearts. Four this foursome, SATISFACTION is elusive and taunting but always worth chasing.

This is the first book to explore and evaluate the potential of museum and gallery spaces and partnerships for art therapy. Showcasing approaches by well-known art therapists, the edited collection contains descriptions of, and reflections on, art therapy in museums and galleries around the globe. Case studies encompass a broad range of client groups, including people with dementia, refugees and clients recovering from substance abuse, exploring the therapeutic skills required to work in these settings. The collection also establishes the context for art therapy in museums and galleries through reviewing key literature and engaging with the latest research, to consider wider perspectives on how these spaces inform therapeutic practice. Offering a comprehensive look at ways in which these locations enable novel and creative therapeutic work, this is an essential book for art therapists, arts and health practitioners and museum professionals.
