Included in this reading comprehension grade 9 packet are a variety of middle school reading strategies based activities, including worksheets, foldables, reader response prompts, and activities. The middle school reading graphic organizers included in this package are perfect for interactive reading notebooks, guided reading practice, after read alouds, language centers, or for comprehension checks. All of the included reading resources support student learning of comprehension strategies. The included activities can be easily aligned to the common core standards. They include generic reading comprehension grade 8 worksheets that can be used with ANY TEXT! All activities are classroom tested and include creative handouts, information sheets, detailed instructions, templates, and rubrics! This creative and engaging 75 page package includes the following: Character Cubes: Students use the included template to create 3D cubes that illustrate and describe a character. Completed cubes can be stacked or hung from the ceiling, and make great classroom displays! Template and detailed rubric included! Character Descriptions: Students choose a character from the novel and use the provided space to illustrate and describe them. A great way for students to practice pulling details from text. What Would Your Character Do? Students choose a character from the novel and answer a set of "What If...?" questions. This activity really gets students thinking "outside of the box"! Characterization Chart: Students learn about direct and indirect presentation, and use that information to complete a chart on a character from the novel Types of Character Foldable: Students learn about different types of characters (Protagonist, Antagonist, Static, Flat, Round, and Dynamic), and create a foldable displaying what they have learned. Students cut out the template on the dotted lines, staple it together, and fill in their information. Excellent for test review! Full template, types of character notes, and detailed foldable construction instructions included! Protagonist and Antagonist Notes: A set of notes on Protagonist and Antagonist is included. Students read over the teacher version, and use it to fill in their own blank note template. Examples included! Know, Wonder, Discover, Learn: Students use this graphic organizer for pre and post reading. Before reading, students write down what they already know and what they hope to learn about (wonder). After reading, students write about what they have discovered and what they want to learn more about. - Reading Comprehension for Middle School Passages and Questions Education

They had entertained a good deal during the winter; much of the time had also been passed in New Orleans in various forms of mild dissipation. She was looking forward to a period of unbroken rest, now, and undisturbed tete-a-tete with her husband, when he informed her that Gouvernail was coming up to stay a week or two. This was a man she had heard much of but never seen. He had been her husband's college friend; was now a journalist, and in no sense a society man or "a man about town," which were, perhaps, some of the reasons she had never met him. But she had unconsciously formed an image of him in her mind. She pictured him tall, slim, cynical; with eye-glasses, and his hands in his pockets; and she did not like him. Gouvernail was slim enough, but he wasn't very tall nor very cynical; neither did he wear eyeglasses nor carry his hands in his pockets. And she rather liked him when he first presented himself. But why she liked him she could not explain satisfactorily to herself when she partly attempted to do so. She could discover in him none of those brilliant and promising traits which Gaston, her husband, had often assured her that he possessed. On the contrary, he sat rather mute and receptive before her chatty eagerness to make him feel at home and in face of Gaston's frank and wordy hospitality. His manner was as courteous toward her as the most exacting woman could require; but he made no direct appeal to her approval or even esteem.

Apolonia "Lina" Flores is a sock enthusiast, a volleyball player, a science lover, and a girl who's just looking for answers. Even though her house is crammed full of books (her dad's a bibliophile), she's having trouble figuring out some very big questions, like why her dad seems to care about books more than her, why her best friend's divorced mom is obsessed with making cascarones (hollowed eggshells filled with colorful confetti), and, most of all, why her mom died last year. Like colors in cascarones, Lina's life is a rainbow of people, interests, and unexpected changes. In her first novel for young readers, Diana López creates a clever and honest story about a young Latina girl navigating growing pains in her South Texan city.
