 Bookbinding By Hand
 Bookbinding by hand may look simple if you have the correct equipment and it is. But you do not want to make any mistakes on your favorite book. Laurence Town shows how this is done for the Student and Craftsman alike. There are 296 pages including the standard table of content, bibliography, and index. An added plus is a foldout chart showing the numerical order sequence of the operations in each of the commoner styles of bookbinding and the pages in which these processes are described.

 Bookbinding by Hand: Amazon.co.uk: Town, Laurence ...
 To stitch the pages, use a bookbinding needle and linen thread, four times the page height. Thread your needle, piercing the thread 1cm from the end and pulling tight instead of tying a knot. Starting at the middle hole, push the needle up through the back of your pages, leaving a 10cm loose thread remaining.
 How to bind a book: a 10-step guide | Creative Bloq
 Hand bookbinders use a variety of specialized hand tools, the most emblematic of which is the bone folder, a flat, tapered, polished piece of bone used to crease paper and apply pressure. Additional tools common to hand bookbinding include a variety of knives and hammers, as well as brass tools used during finishing.
