A total institution is defined by Goffman as a place of residence and work where a large number of like-situated, individuals, cut off from the wider society for an appreciable period of time, together lead an enclosed, formally administered round of life. Prisons serve as a clear example, providing we appreciate that what is prison-like about prisons is found in institutions whose members have broken no laws. This volume deals with total institutions in general and, mental hospitals, in particular. The main focus is, on the world of the inmate, not the world of the staff. A chief concern is to develop a sociological version of the structure of the self. Each of the essays in this book were intended to focus on the same issue--the inmate's situation in an institutional context. Each chapter approaches the central issue from a different vantage point, each introduction drawing upon a different source in sociology and having little direct relation to the other chapters. This method of presenting material may be irksome, but it allows the reader to pursue the main theme of each paper analytically and comparatively past the point that would be allowable in chapters of an integrated book. If sociological concepts are to be treated with affection, each must be traced back to where it best applies, followed from there wherever it seems to lead, and pressed to disclose the rest of its family.

The series Studies on Modern Orient provides an overview of religious, political and social phenomena in modern and contemporary Muslim societies. The volumes do not only take into account Near and Middle Eastern countries, but also explore Islam and Muslim culture in other regions of the world, for example, in Europe and the US. The series Studies on Modern Orient was founded in 2010 by Klaus Schwarz Verlag.

The Novels of Marge Piercy Routledge

Living among other people, in their families and communities, children become aware from a very early age of questions related to justice, and they search for the meaning of the world. By fostering an understanding of human rights, shaping opinion and developing attitudes, human rights education strongly supports this natural interest and learning process. This is what human rights education is about and this is what 'Compassito manual on human rights education for children' is for. 'Compassito' is a starting point for educators, teachers and trainers who are ready to deal with human rights education with children of 7-13 years. The book covers the key concepts of human rights and children's rights, and provides substantial theoretical background to 13 key human rights issues, such as democracy, citizenship, gender equality, environment, media, poverty, and violence. The 42 practical activities serve to engage and motivate children to recognise human rights issues in their own environment. They help children to develop critical thinking, responsibility and a sense of justice, and help them learn how to take action to contribute to the betterment of their school or community. The manual also gives practical tips on how it can be used in various formal and non-formal educational settings.

Winner of the Wellcome Book Prize 2017. Longlisted for the Man Booker International Prize 2016. Now a major French film, REPARER LES VIVANTS/HEAL THE LIVING, directed by Katell Quillevere and starring Emmanuelle Seigner. A twenty-four-hour whirlwind of death and life. In the depths of a winter's night, the heart of Simon Limbeau is resting, readying itself for the day to come. In a few hours' time, just before six, his alarm will go off and he will venture into the freezing dawn, drive down to the beach, and go surfing with his friends. A trip he has made a hundred times and yet, today, the heart of Simon Limbeau will encounter a very different course. But for now, the black-box of his body is free to leap, swell, melt and sink, just as it has throughout the years of Simon's young life. 5.50 a.m. This is his heart. And here is its story. Translated from the French by Jessica Moore

Da oltre 30 anni coltivo la passione per le radio d'epoca.. Posso solo affermare che ogni volta che osservo una radio mi evoca una storia e, con l'immaginazione, la riporto nell'ambiente e tessuto sociale dove, probabilmente, e "vissuta." Mi sembrava un peccato non restituire alcune di queste sensazioni. A questo punto mi sono concesso il lusso di consegnarle alla carta, cominciando da quelle che ho avuto la fortuna di acquisire nel corso delle mie ricerche. L'intenzione e assolutamente autentica. E' per questo che auguro una buona lettura e una serena immersione nell'Italia di provincia dagli anni trenta ai settanta.

Antonio Larivera è nato a Castelmauro alla fine della seconda guerra mondiale. A sei mesi si sposta in un altro paese, Larino; nella stessa provincia. Frequenta le elementari alternando la scuola con il lavoro, nel 1963 si trasferisce in Piemonte per necessità di lavoro. Assunto in una ditta telefonica ci lavora fino all'età pensionabile. Per aiutare il figlio diventato maestro di tennis prende in gestione un circolo a Borgaro (TO). Gli piace leggere pur non avendo molto tempo per farlo gli piace scrivere sfruttando quelle poche pause che l'impegno del circolo gli consente. Di recente ha scritto un libro simpaticissimo dal titolo Beatrice Nikita due storie Quasi Parallele che uscirà a breve. La mia storia come tante altre. E' un racconto di una vita vissuta fra paure e stenti. Comincia con le difficoltà della guerra che ha paralizzato i paesi per molti anni. Pur essendo personale rispecchia la vita di molti che nel dopoguerra hanno dovuto superare momenti di difficoltà sia economiche che fisiche. Anche in età scolastiche tutti dovevano dare il proprio contributo per aiutare i genitori. Lentamente si è ricostruito gran parte di quanto i bombardamenti hanno distrutto riportando i paesi ad una condizione di vivibilità.

The Repair of the World CreateSpace

Now an HBO series: the first volume in the New York Times–bestselling “enduring masterpiece” about a lifelong friendship between two women from Naples (The Atlantic). Beginning in the 1950s in a poor but vibrant neighborhood on the outskirts of Naples, Elena Ferrante’s four-volume story spans almost sixty years, as its main characters, the fiery and unforgettable Lila and the bookish narrator, Elena, become women, wives, mothers, and leaders, all the while maintaining a complex and at times conflicted friendship. This first novel in the series follows Lila and Elena from their fateful meeting as ten-year-olds through their school years and adolescence. Through the lives of these two women, Ferrante tells the story of a neighborhood, a city, and a country as it is transformed in ways that, in turn, also transform the relationship between two women. “An intoxicatingly furious portrait of enmeshed friends.” —Entertainment Weekly “Spectacular.” —Maureen Corrigan, NPR’s Fresh Air “Captivating.” —The New Yorker

This book presents an energetic approach to the performance analysis of internal combustion engines, seen as attractive applications of the principles of thermodynamics, fluid mechanics and energy transfer. Paying particular attention to the presentation of theory and practice in a balanced ratio, the book is an important aid both for students and for technicians, who want to widen their knowledge of basic principles required for design and development of internal combustion engines. New engine technologies are covered, together with recent developments in terms of: intake and exhaust flow optimization, design and development of supercharging systems, fuel metering and spray characteristic control, fluid turbulence motions, traditional and advanced combustion process analysis, formation and control of pollutant emissions and noise, heat transfer and cooling, fossil and renewable fuels, mono- and multi-dimensional models of termo-fluid-dynamic processes.
