Mistaken Legacy - Book 1

Xlibris Corporation

We all follow different paths in life. Some are born into violence and incest. Some find love and become wildly successful. Some escape into drugs and despair. Sarah has done it all. At age 15 she was imprisoned in a convent and gave birth to an illegitimate baby. She later married and raised more children with the father of her first child, who was a cruel and violent husband. She managed to escape being almost beaten to death and was given six weeks to live. Despite these challenges and the sacrifice of leaving her young children behind, Sarah's inner strength and determination took her back to the UK to build a career and become one of the first highly respected businesswomen in Europe. She was later driven by destiny to create a new life in the country she had escaped from to meet a man she was told she had loved before. Coming full circle, Sarah's remarkable life is shared in this book along with valuable lessons about fate, guardian angels and the cycle of life.

"After forty years in the classroom, Jack Morris, a professor of literature at a New England university, has gradually lost the joy of teaching. The gulf between him (growing older) and the students (always the same age) has widened. Contributing to his problem are a false accusation of sexual assault from a former student, the "outing" of his only son, the romantic problems his oldest daughter faces, and the fact that his wife is at the top of her game"--

The Final Plot of Valerie Lott MacLehose Press
Valerie Lott is a reporter living in Tucson, Arizona, when she meets a man at the ball park while waiting to interview a baseball star. Their conversation affects her deeply. He is so alive in the moment, she can't forget him. Homeless? When a councilman's daughter is kidnapped, thought, the description fits the man she met. Could her instincts be wrong about him? She is so certain that he can't be a criminal that she tries to find him before police do... But first we meet David, who left Tucson prior to visit a former astronomer colleague in Dubai. He feels lost, unsure what to do next with his life. An explosive attack on the Burj Khalifa tags him as a suspect with police there, too. Amid the billionaires who finance science projects, and an underworld figure seeking revenge for the attack, David targets another man who lives there for his own revenge: that of bankrupting his mother prior to her death. What happens next is anything but predictable. Partly based on The Power of Now by Eckhart Tolle, The Final Plot of Valerie Lott is about transformations and second chances...just when you believe they are impossible.

The Outsiders Leigh Rose

convince his wife to fall in love the new man he's becoming--before it's too late for both of them?

"Riveting... Page-turning...The pacing is swift, the action scenes are cinematically developed, and Rose's moving, assured prose keeps the pages turning..." — The Prairies Book Review 1 June - 7 July 1980 St. Augustine, Florida Paris, France Juliette's life is a fairytale come true until a mysterious overseas letter arrives from a cousin she hadn't met. In his letter, Claude Freedman exposes the truth about her engagement gift passed down through the ages, and a memoir written by her 4th great-grandfather and nobleman, Capt. Françoise J. Reiss III: A man with a nefarious past who lived during the colonial slave trade. When Juliette confronts her mother with Claude's letter, Adrian insists the Freedman's are 'impostors' and Children of the Alliance, the memoir "the captain" wrote, is a 'literary forgery.' Defying her mother's wish to forget about their family's notorious past, Juliette sojourns to St. Augustine, Florida, to meet Mr. Freedman, and to pick up "the captain's" memoir. However, while visiting the "Land of Flowers," Juliette fears the Freedman descendants from "the captain's" second marriage might be the rightful owners of her dowry. Realizing the truth may not always mend broken hearts, but will turn heads, Juliette returns to Paris, France, where she hires a team of forensic scientists to investigate her heirloom dowry: The decoratively carved ebony chest of rare gemstones. Shocked by the team's discovery and with INTERPOL on her tail, Juliette calls upon her trusted friends to help her until she can clear her family name...

"It's a bet, then," Rhiana said, "Tell me how the killer did it or wash dishes for a month." Tanner and Jenny, age 13, nodded. "Right," Rhiana said. "It happened inside a walk-in safe with locked doors, unbroken, concrete walls, ceiling and floor, no windows or other openings. The victim was alone, killed with a big knife driven into her chest and left there. She couldn't have done it herself. She didn't carry the knife inside with her. Four cops surrounded the house. Two cameras with overlapping fields of view stood behind each cop. They'll testify that no one got past them. The tapes back them up." "Someone hid inside the house," Jenny said. "No, the police searched the house before the crime and afterward." "Mom, it's impossible." Tanner's voice was strong.

"'Impossible' is a word we don't use in this house." "Give up?" Rhiana asked. "It's a tough one." "I never give up." Rhiana swung her legs outside the table pointing at her husband. She pulled her skirt above mid-thigh and leaned her legs to one side. Her legs filled Tanner's mind, pulling him away from small bare rooms with blood on the floor. Jenny stalked around the table. "Mom. No fair. You're distracting Daddy with your legs." "Hush, Jenny," Tanner said. Tanner reached for her legs with his right hand.

In early October 2004, Brendon Burns - a delusional, god-fearing, drug addict, manic depressive and award-winning comedian - has a vision of happiness. He imagines himself sitting with two friends in a convertible in the middle of a desert, and for once he feels totally in control of his life. With the (slightly inebriated) voices in his head assuring him that he can recreate this perfect moment, he clearly has no choice but to gather the troops and head out to the US of A in pursuit his dream... Fear of Hat Loss in Las Vegas is the true story of four men - Brendon and his friends Barry Castagnola (the everyman), Paul Provenza (an Italian New Yorker, devout atheist, actor and movie director), and Keith (Barry's dad and best friend) - and their search for happiness and redemption in the heart of the Nevada desert. Demented, depraved, dangerously addictive and yet with a deep heart, soul and spirit, it is a tale of debauchery, mushrooms, fate, hookers, coincidence, stand-up comedy, aliens, Vegas and, ultimately, friendship. Rude, insane, in your face (and off their faces), it is the story of the perfect road trip. What happens in Vegas stays in Vegas - unless of course it's really funny. Then Brendon will write a fking book about it...
