I went into the room and slowly took my shirt off. Then my pants. Then my underwear. As I climbed onto the bed, I wet myself. I wet everything. He came in and, making sure I could hear it, pulled his belt off. He started at the back of my knees and worked his way up. He made me count. When I got to eight, he turned the belt around and began with the buckle end. I was eight That damn belt! Danny lived life in daily fear, fear of his fathers rage, fear of his fathers belt. Beginning at an extremely young age, his father demanded that Danny know who was in charge. Told in gripping first person, That Damn Belt! tells the story of a boy whose life revolves around his abusive father. As he grows, his girlfriend Ashelee, her pastor father and Jesus Christ all begin to play central roles. That Damn Belt! is in many ways a unique story of love and hope.

The New York Times–bestselling classic set amid the mountains and streams of early twentieth-century Montana, “as beautiful as anything in Thoreau or Hemingway” (Chicago Tribune). When Norman Maclean sent the manuscript of A River Runs Through It and Other Stories to New York publishers, he received a slew of rejections. One editor, so the story goes, replied, “it has trees in it.” Today, the title novella is recognized as one of the great American tales of the twentieth century, and Maclean as one of the most beloved writers of our time. The finely distilled product of a long life of often surprising rapture—for fly-fishing, for the woods, for the interlocked beauty of life and art—A River Runs Through It has established itself as a classic of the American West filled with beautiful prose and understated emotional insights. Based on Maclean’s own experiences as a young man, the book’s two novellas and short story are set in the small towns and mountains of western Montana. It is a world populated with drunks, loggers, card sharks, and whores, but also one rich in the pleasures of fly-fishing, logging, cribbage, and family. By turns raunchy and elegiac, these superb tales express, in Maclean’s own words, “a little of the love I have for the earth as it goes by.” “Maclean’s book—acerbic, laconic, deadpan—rings out of a rich American tradition that includes Mark Twain, Kin Hubbard, Richard Bissell, Jean Shepherd, and Nelson Algren.” —New York Times Book Review Includes a new foreword by Robert Redford, director of the Academy Award-winning film adaptation
