lasting impact...The power and purpose of Pentecost

| by Home Mission ...Pentecost is a feast celebrated by the Jews and being that the Holy Spirit was poured out on the disciples on this very day, some churches in the cause of trying to distinguish themselves from those Christians that either did or do not believe in the gift of the Holy Spirit or in the Holy Spirit as still being present in these times coined the name 'pentecostals'. The Purpose of Pentecost by T.L. Osborn - Goodreads This was the purpose of Pentecost! Yes, believers were endued with power from on high and were supernaturally equipped for ministry (Luke 24:49; Acts 1:8). But that purpose of Pentecost was to launch a movement of world-wide missions that would endure throughout the entire age of the church! The Purpose of Pentecost by Tony Cookelt may come as surprise to some Christians that the main purpose of the Day of Pentecost was not to make speaking in tongues available to believers. The experience was certainly part of the package, as is clearly seen in Acts chapter 2, but when Jesus taught his disciples about what was about to happen, only once did he mention speaking in a "new tongue" (Mark 16:17) and that was on the day of his Ascension. The Purpose of Pentecost - Wikipedia The purpose of marking Pentecost today is to focus on the power of the Spirit of God, how it accomplishes what it sets out to do, and to reflect upon how the God and Father of mankind lavishly gives out His love - not as a worldly leader (even the best of them) might do - to all that believe, and not just to those that believe but through them to many more people in this world that needs Jesus (but so often substitutes man-made alternatives - what seems good in their own eyes).
