This book constitutes the refereed post-conference proceedings on Learning and Intelligent Optimization, LION 14, held in Athens, Greece, in May 2020. The 37 full papers presented together with one invited paper have been carefully reviewed and selected from 75 submissions. LION deals with designing and engineering ways of "learning" about the performance of different techniques, and ways of using past experience about the algorithm behavior to improve performance in the future. Intelligent learning schemes for mining the knowledge obtained online or offline can improve the algorithm design process and simplify the applications of high-performance optimization methods. Combinations of different algorithms can further improve the robustness and performance of the individual components. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, LION 14 was not held as a physical meeting.

In May 2006, in the light of the public controversy arising from recent cases involving the Human Rights Act 1998, the Government announced its intention to conduct reviews by the Department for Constitutional Affairs (DCA) and the Home Office into the impact of the Act on the criminal justice system and the Government's ability to protect the public against crime and terrorism. The Committee's report examines the human rights implications of these reviews and surrounding events, as well as reflecting in a broader sense on the work remaining to be done in order to embed a "human rights culture" in this country. The Committee's findings include that, although there is no evidence of a need to amend or repeal the Act, public misunderstanding and unease will continue so long as senior Ministers make unfounded assertions about the negative impact of the Act on the criminal justice system and seek to use it as a scapegoat for administrative failings in their departments. The Committee acknowledges that the DCA review makes a fair and balanced contribution to the debate and supports its proposal for more pro-active work to debunk public myths about the Act and to highlight its positive impact, for example for the rights of the disabled. The report concludes that establishing a culture of respect for human rights cannot be achieved through legal means alone but needs a shift in public perception.

The 9th Belgian-French-German Conference on Optimization has been held in Namur (Belgium) on September 7-11, 1998. This volume is a collection of papers presented at this Conference. Originally, this Conference was a French-German Conference but this year, in accordance with the organizers' wishes, a third country, Belgium, has joined the founding members of the Conference. Hence the name: Belgian French-German Conference on Optimization. Since the very beginning, the purpose of these Conferences has been to bring together researchers working in the area of Optimization and particularly to encourage young researchers to present their work. Most of the participants come from the organizing countries. However the general tendency is to invite outside researchers to attend the meeting. So this year, among the 101 participants at this Conference, twenty researchers came from other countries. The general theme of the Conference is everything that concerns the area of Optimization without specification of particular topics. So theoretical aspects of Optimization, in addition to applications and algorithms of Optimization, will be developed. However, and this point was very important for the organizers, the Conference must retain its convivial character. No more than two parallel sessions are organized. This would allow useful contacts between researchers to be promoted. The editors express their sincere thanks to all those who took part in this Conference. Their invaluable discussions have made this volume possible.

Let the Author's Handbook of Styles for Life Science Journals save you time and trouble by providing a one-stop resource for all your manuscript writing requirements. No more plowing through your journal collection or wandering the library stacks to get those elusive journal pages containing instructions to authors. This unique book contains all the information you need to know: whether the journal will consider your manuscript; the journal's submission address; how to construct the abstract, illustrations, tables, and references; and specific information on copyright, multiple authorship, statistical analyses, and page charges. The Author's Handbook of Styles for Life Science Journals gives all this information for 440 of the most important English-language, life science journals. Titles were selected from the "Journal Rankings by Times Cited" list in the Science Citation Index Journal Citation Report. Because this report is heavily weighted toward the medical sciences, other life science journals are incorporated into the book based on general level of prestige and reputation. In addition, some new titles that promise to be important to their fields, like Nature Medicine and Emerging Infectious Diseases are also included. Organized by journal title, the handbook's entries are uniformly arranged to allow direct comparison between journals. Information is presented in an easy-to-use, easy-to-read format with clear and explicitly stated instructions. The Author's Handbook of Styles for Life Science Journals gives authors in the life sciences all the information necessary for the correct and complete compilation of a manuscript for submission to their journal of choice.

In a technology driven world, basic knowledge and awareness about computers is a must if we wish to lead a successful personal and professional life. Today Computer Awareness is considered as an important dimension in most of the competitive examinations like SSC, Bank PO/Clerk & IT Officer, UPSC & other State Level PSCs, etc. Objective questions covering Computer Awareness are asked in a number of competitive exams, so the present book which will act as an Objective Question Bank for Computer Awareness has been prepared keeping in mind the importance of the subject. This book has been divided into 22 chapters covering all the sections of Computer Awareness like Introduction to Computer, Computer Organisation, Input & Output Devices, Memory, Software, MS-Office, Database, Internet & Networking, Computer Security, Digital Electronics, etc. The chapters in the book contain more than 75 tables which will help in better summarization of the important information. With a collection of more than 3500 objective questions, the content covered in the book simplifies the complexities of some of the topics so that the non-computer students feel no difficulty while studying various concepts covered under Computer Awareness section. This book contains the most streamlined collection of objective questions including questions asked in competitive examinations upto 2014. As the book thoroughly covers the Computer Awareness section asked in a number of competitive examinations, it for sure will work as a preparation booster for various competitive examinations like UPSC & State Level PSCs Examinations, SSC, Bank PO/Clerk & IT Officer and other general competitive & recruitment examinations.
