 NATIONAL BESTSELLER • For anyone who wants to learn a foreign language, this is the method that will finally make the words stick. "A brilliant and thoroughly modern guide to learning new languages."—Gary Marcus, cognitive psychologist and author of the New York Times bestseller Guitar Zero
 At thirty years old, Gabriel Wyner speaks six languages fluently. He didn't learn them in school—who does? Rather, he learned them in the past few years, working on his own and practicing on the subway, using simple techniques and free online resources—and here he wants to show others what he's discovered. Starting with pronunciation, you'll learn how to rewire your ears and turn foreign sounds into familiar sounds. You'll retrain your tongue to produce those sounds accurately, using tricks from opera singers and actors. Next, you'll begin to tackle words, and connect sounds and spellings to imagery rather than translations, which will enable you to think in a foreign language. And with the help of sophisticated spaced-repetition techniques, you'll be able to memorize hundreds of words a month in minutes every day. This is brain hacking at its most exciting, taking what we know about neuroscience and linguistics and using it to create the most efficient and enjoyable way to learn a foreign language in the spare minutes of your day.

Dear readers, this material will be helpful for those preparing for Goethe-Zertifikat A2 level exam. It contains three sections: 1. Text message samples. 2. Letter samples. 3. Cliches or reference phrases for A2 level letter writing. This tutorial will also provide you as a bonus with some exam preparation materials concerning its integral part SPEAKING. Besides, the main recommendations on writing letters are added to be taken into consideration while writing letters and text messages. In order to pass an international language exam successfully one has to prepare for it in advance. Even if you took an appropriate level language course or learned with a private tutor individually or in a group or if you are quite confident and have considerable experience in communication with native speakers - despite this you should prepare for the exam. As you know international exams in German consist of four parts: LISTENING, READING, WRITING and SPEAKING. While preparing for the exam one needs to focus on WRITING as exactly in this part you can demonstrate your knowledge, skills and capacities in the best way. In today's format of Start Deutsch A2 or Goethe-Zertifikate A2 part WRITING has found a new look: filling in a regular form that was expected by those who had taken Goethe-Zertifikate A1 level exam was replaced by writing a text message.

It's true that some people spend years studying German before they finally get around to speaking the language. But here's a better idea. Skip the years of study and jump right to the speaking part. Sound crazy? No, it's language hacking. Unlike most traditional language courses that try to teach you the rules of German, #LanguageHacking shows you how to learn and speak German through proven memory techniques, unconventional shortcuts and conversation strategies perfected by one of the world's greatest language learners, Benny Lewis, aka the Irish Polyglot. Using the language hacks - shortcuts that make learning simple - that Benny mastered while learning his 11 languages and his 'speak from the start' method, you will crack the language code and exponentially increase your language abilities so that you can get fluent faster. It's not magic. It's not a language gene. It's not something only "other people" can do. It's about being smart with how you learn, learning what's indispensable, skipping what's not, and using what you've learned to have real conversations in German from day one. The Method #LanguageHacking takes a modern approach to language learning, blending the power of online social collaboration with traditional methods. It focuses on the conversations that learners need to master right away, rather than presenting language in order of difficulty like most courses. This means that you can have conversations immediately, not after years of study. Each of the 10 units culminates with a speaking 'mission' that prepares you to use the language you've learned to talk about yourself. Through the language hacker online learner community, you can share your personalized speaking 'missions' with other learners - getting and giving feedback and extending your learning beyond the pages of the book. You don't need to go abroad to learn a language any more.
