The Roaring Silence: John Cage: A Life. by David Revill. 3.73 · Rating details · 89 ratings · 9 reviews. John Cage has been described as the most influential composer of the last half of the twentieth century. His work and ideas - about silence, indeterminacy, nonintention, art's role in bringing the everyday object to our attention, the singularity of performance - have had influence not only in the world of music but also in dance, painting, printmaking, video art, and poet. The Roaring Silence: John Cage: A Life by David Revill | John Cage: The Roaring Silence In 1952, pianist David Tudor entered a performance hall in Woodstock, NY, lifted the piano lid and sat down for four minutes and thirty-three seconds without playing a single note, as an understandably confused audience watched. Tudor was performing a piece titled, simply, 4'33", by John Cage. John Cage: The Roaring Silence | Academy of American Poets The Roaring Silence: John Cage, A Life. By David Revill.
