You probably don't want your child to forget about Easter? Psychologists and educators agree that each year parents care less about holiday traditions! It might not seem like it, but coloring books allow to develop of very important skills for a child, for example: ● Holding the pencil correctly - with each subsequent picture, the child will gain more skills and will be better at controlling hand movements. Coloring books are a great exercise for developing manual skills. ● Concentration and creativity - coloring requires concentration on one activity for a long time, the child develops the ability to focus attention and creativity by choosing colors. ● Memory development - the child learns about colors, shapes, and pictures, and characters by presenting them in different situations. These activities deepen knowledge, develop imagination, and memory. ● Decision making - it is very important for children what color they choose and they often think about it while creating a composition for their pictures. ● Expressing emotions - coloring can relieve emotions. The colors children choose and the way they hold the crayons can be information to parents about the child's mood. I am the mother of my two children (son and daughter) and I cannot imagine their development without coloring books!

Information about this book: ● 30 pictures to color - Your child will feel Easter time by coloring pages with bunnies, baskets, eggs, chicks, little girls, and boys with Easter content, flowers, and animals (my son Tom likes the picture on page 59 the most) ● 30 pages of 2 stories (turtle and bunny) - When my children coloring I notice that the crayons and markers are bleed-through to the other side. So I found a solution to this problem! After every single coloring page is a blank and black page with part of the story. In this way, I combined stories and coloring pages in this book. Children cannot tear themselves away from this book because each part of the story drives them to move on to the next but to do it, kids have to color one page! ● Cover - Eye-catching elements make the child more likely to reach for the book. ● The place for signature - This will help your child become even more attached to this book and make it more personal. Kids love it! ● Color test - A special page where the child will check what the color of the crayon looks like. CLICK ON THE COVER TO REVAL WHAT IS INSIDE! Why you and your child will love this book? ● Relaxing coloring pages - every page helps relax, focus and calm down ● Building the parent-child bond - spending time together is essential for every family ● Beautiful Illustration - 30 pictures to stimulate creativity ● Single-sided pages - every image is placed on its own black-backed page to reduce the bleed-through problem found in other coloring books ● Great for all ages and skill levels - each page can be differently colored, there is no wrong color here I am a parent too and sometimes I need a break. This coloring book makes my children go into a trance!
