With its solo set-up, more subdued speeds, and endlessly varying events and courses, autocross is the easiest, safest, and least expensive way to get into motorsports. Anyone with a helmet and a car can do it. Of course, it doesn't hurt to have some driving skills, which is where this book comes in. As a veteran racer and professional driving coach, Ross Bentley knows what it takes to compete and to win, and he gives readers the benefit of that knowledge in Speed Secrets 7: Autocross Driving Fundamentals. The first in the Speed Secrets series to address a specific form of racing, this volume focuses on the skills critical to autocross success: car handling and driver skill at high speeds on unique courses. Though slower than other motorsports in absolute terms, autocross, with its high number of turns per minute, can challenge even the most expert driver. Adapting his time-proven method of teaching drivers how to go fast, Bentley clearly details the steps and techniques that help autocross drivers maintain control and dominate a course at speed. Though specific to autocross, and essential to mastering its particular challenges, his advice and instruction in this book will prove invaluable to drivers who go on to road racing as well.

Problem: People are tired of feeling powerless and uninformed when dealing with insurance.

Solution: At last, here you'll find the inside tips that will enable you to save money, time, and avoid frustration when buying or renewing your insurance. Dear Friend: If you're like most people, you're paying too much on your insurance premiums and should know that there are "untold" ways to save money and prevent aggravation. But unless you were privy to the "inside tips" that most insurance professionals know about, you wouldn't have a clue as to how you could save as much as possible. Well, here's your chance to get the secrets that some don't volunteer to share. Listed below are just some of the things you'll learn in "Insurance Secrets Revealed," to start putting cash back into YOUR pocket, take better control, and protect yourself & family...right away: • Learn the one simple "secret" that could save hundreds or thousands of dollars off of a homeowners or auto insurance premium immediately! • Discover the one thing that's overlooked by most people and causes them to overpay month after month • Learn the "special questions" to ask an insurance company or agent that can save you money off of your quote or premium • Discover how and when an insurance company can fix your car, even if you only have liability coverage • Learn "Secrets" to saving money when insuring younger drivers • How to prevent paying "out of pocket" (despite having insurance) to your finance or leasing company after a major accident • Discover 12 important insurance products you must know about NOW! • How to inexpensively cover yourself against major lawsuits • How to really buy auto insurance and what you should be asking for • How to choose a good insurance company before it's too late • Learn what to include in your policy, to get more money for your home or auto claim • How to get life insurance death benefits WHILE YOU'RE STILL LIVING (most people are absolutely shocked by this, and no, it's not the accumulated cash value of the policy.) • Find out these important tips to keep from being "penalized" or cancelled by your insurance company • Learn the difference between buying insurance through agents, brokers, and buying direct (there is a difference) • Find out things you should know about the claims process, that perhaps no one ever told you! • Discover what every homeowner should know about mold, where to go for help, and much more! DON'T RELY SOLELY ON AGENTS OR SALES REPS TO TELL YOU HOW TO SAVE ON, OR BUY INSURANCE! Insurance is a serious topic and the truth of the matter is that most people don't have a clue as to what they're getting or what they should be asking for when talking to an insurance agent. Not knowing what to buy or what type of policy is best for your situation can cost you and your family BIG TIME by leaving you at the mercy of an insurance salesperson's lack of experience, knowledge and/or concern. To be honest, you have a right to know all you can without being an insurance agent yourself. This is why this information is now being revealed, so consumers like yourself can be put on a level playing field, compared to people that just blindly buy insurance everyday, pay more than they have to, and walk away with inadequate protection. Friend, don't let a lack of knowledge keep you from empowering yourself! This is the type of straight-up information that you need, "real world" info that will tell you like it really is, (something rarely found elsewhere). Now is the time to stop being vulnerable and seize control by becoming an informed buyer! Get your copy today! "Insurance Secrets Revealed by award-winning insurance agent and expert, Rodger Nelson, is a highly practical guide filled from cover to cover with money-saving advice that the insurance companies themselves will never voluntarily reveal to prospective policyholders. Individual chapters cogently address pertinent issues ranging from untold "secrets" of life insurance; solid tips for protecting a business through insurance; insuring against threats to personal finances; and much, much more. Insurance Secrets Revealed is strongly recommended supplementary reading for insurance buyers everywhere." - Midwest Book Review Tags: buying insurance, insurance secrets, saving money tips and tricks, money saving ideas, insider secrets, cost saving ideas, best ways to save money, secrets revealed, money saving tricks, money saving tips, saving money guide, buying advice, reduce debt, reducing expenses, lowering bills, budgeting save money, how to save money, fast ways to save money, money saving advice, tips to save money, lowering expenses by Parnell Worthington Not all of those arrested for DUI are serial, heavy drinkers. With new laws, many social, casual drinkers are discovering that they are on the front lines in the War on Drunks. Drinking, Driving, and Surviving: Uncovering the secrets of DUI avoidance is a provocative look at the lengths a group of motorists will go to avoid drunk driving arrests. The book explores the strategies and maneuvers that these "masters" employ to reduce the odds of DUI and DWI arrests--from the model of car they drive, to where they park; from when they decide to hit the road, to the way they comb their hair!

"At any price, Herr Dr. Porsche. At any price below 1000 marks ($250)," laughed Hitler as he ordered the inauguration of the Volkswagen project in the late summer of 1933. The scene was Berlin's Hotel Kaiserhof where Hitler, meeting with Germany's most famous automotive engineer, Dr. Ferdinand Porsche, was outlining plans for a "people's car." Hitler wanted, for the German worker, a car that would travel the autobahns, at reasonably high speed, provide gasoline mileage in the 30 to 35 miles per gallon class and be simply constructed and inexpensive to repair. Also, it had to cost less than any other car on the European market.

With glorious photography and sharp writing, Never Stop Driving presents the case for the mental and social benefits of driving and engaging with automobiles. It also shows you—from dreaming about a car to living with it—how to jump in and get the most from your machine. There's never been a better time to go for a drive. As a nation, we are chronically overstressed, overworked, and not sleeping enough. Worse yet, our digital devices are taking ever increasing chunks of what remaining free time we do have. Activities that force us to engage with ourselves and the environment around us are needed more than ever. Might I suggest a spin in a four-wheeled escape pod? The car—the act of driving, repairing, maintaining—drives out distraction and demands we be "present." Making the car a pursuit invites not just the freedom of the road, but the potential to connect with thousands of like-minded individuals as well as the pleasure of simply caring for the machine. Further, there's the thrill of commanding an object that represents a high point of human ingenuity and design. Cars invite passion. The first step is embracing the itch and acting on it. Learn how to choose your perfect weekend car, hunt for it, and make the deal. Then, find peace in the wrenches with tips on taking the plunge into maintaining your ride, including how your car can be an opportunity to tear your kids away from their screens and strengthen your bond with them. Next, explore the joy of driving, from scenic byways to taking your car to its performance limit. You'll also tour the various highlights of the driving life, like how to become an automotive archaeologist, the possibilities for those short on cash but high for adventure, the car as a social gathering point, and what the future with autonomous cars means for those who love to drive. Never Stop Driving shines some light on why we find these machines so captivating, offering some inspiration and validation, and finally inviting those who are curious but haven't made the leap to get in the car. Let's roll.

Ross Bentley. Race teams have discovered great benefits can be derived from "tuning" their driver to perform at his/her full potential. Thus, this book is for everyone who works with a driver: engineers, crew chiefs, team owners, mechanics, and the driver's parents. This unique book instructs the driver's support team how to prepare and communicate with the driver so the driver delivers the best performance in races, practice sessions, and off-track team functions. Written by veteran racer and driving coach Ross Bentley, this book helps the driver's support team devise effective approaches to "tuning" their driver. It will help them identify techniques that do and don't work with their specific driver. The result should be better communication and a driver who is "tuned" for success.

Dennis Grant, the "Street Modified Godfather", built an SCCA ProSolo Championship and FIA Canadian National Championship winning autocross car. This book describes the tricks, secrets, and engineering details he learned during his racing career. Equally applicable to road racers, rally cars, circle track cars, and high performance street cars, this book is full of information on how to make cars handle at the extreme limits of performance. Includes chapters on tuning suspensions, building shocks, and selecting tires - and much, much more! Whether you are just starting out building a high-performance car, or a grizzled veteran of motorsports, this book is full of insightful (and occasionally funny) observations on what it takes to tune the car and driver system in order to win races. Contains theory and practical advice as well. Written very much in the idiom of the legendary Carroll Smith's ...to Win series, this book is an essential addition to the bookshelf of any automotive enthusiast.

Buy a world-class luxury car for under $10,000. Most people have a love-hate relationship with luxury cars. They love the idea of driving a luxury car. They envy luxury car owners. But they're scared to own a luxury car themselves. You're not most people. You know that used luxury cars are the greatest deal going. For around $5,000, you can drive a top-of-the-line flagship luxury car that is still classier, faster, and more comfortable than new cars sold today. The only downside may be that your friends think you have too much money to spend, because no one will be able to guess you only paid $5,000 for a car that cost $70,000 new Don't settle. Used luxury cars aren't scary, if you know which ones to buy and which ones to avoid, and how to choose them, buy them, and maintain them. The only thing better than cruising around in the comfort of a $70,000+ car is knowing that you paid under $10,000 for it. This book is an in-depth guide to: Why used luxury cars are underpriced ("the Uncle Howard effect") Why you shouldn't buy a used luxury car from the corner car lot Why you shouldn't spank yourself for wanting a luxury car Which used luxury cars are the best deals and which ones you must avoid just as assiduously as you'd avoid making eye contact with a clown What years, configurations, and options to choose on each car What specific pitfalls to avoid with each recommended car How to get parts and labor for a reasonable price, without compromising your sexual morals How to love life because you're driving an amazing luxury car and you paid only $5,000 for it Doris bought her first used luxury car when she was still in high school, and has been obsessing over buying and selling used luxury cars since then. She loves cars, she loves bargains, and she loves helping people save money on car ownership. This book combines all three of her interests. Doris Chan is a lifelong car enthusiast who grew up in Los Angeles and has spent the last decade working in corporate finance for a major automaker. She holds a degree in economics from a major Ivy League university. In her spare time, she dreams about her next used luxury car purchase, listens to Willie Nelson, and tells dirty jokes.
