*A Journey Through
Transplantation* Hal
Leonard Corporation
This book, Heartfelt, is an intimate look at love through the eyes of a man who is forced to ponder losing the love of his life.
It is through the medical miracle of heart transplantation that he is spared that eternal pain
and his beloved wife, Jean, is saved by the grace and heroic gesture
of an unknown family.
Experience first-hand heart transplantation. This is the remarkable, moving true story of two families brought together through tragedy and triumph. One loses a family member;
one regains a life. See how it happens, as it happens. Be there bedside, through the waiting, through the wondering as Joe brings you through the days,
weeks and months

leading up to and
following Jean's transplant. Learn how circumstances beyond
anyone's direct control
come to intersect,
changing forever all those who experience it from their own perspectives spoken in first person language. See too how life connects us in ways never imagined. This book reminds us that we are never really alone. We always have others. We simply have to have faith, hope and love--with them,
we can make it through anything.

Barbara Taylor is a different breed. In Father, Who Are You? Taylor shares with a transparent and humble heart many stirring reflections on being a struggling wife, devoted mother and a fearless missionary in India. In this devotional Taylor uses scriptures as a diving board, splashing into the memories of her life of growing up in Alaska and later ministering in the villages of India. As she reveals to us how to live a life of faith, and how to experience the pure joy, peace, and freedom; there is a deep refreshing. At first glance this book appeals more to Christian women, yet Taylor's insight into the problems that ended her marriage, and her accounts of the cultural differences and extreme challenges she faced as a missionary in India, make it an invaluable read for a larger audience. -BlueInk Review Please Reveal Yourself to Me WestBow Press

She held a weapon given by a stranger to end her own life. However, the stranger was her husband, a former war hero of Operation Iraqi Freedom who had somehow lost himself in an illness that was not understood by her. How would she carry on? Would she survive? The War That Came Home is one spouse's journey to face the lingering effects of war. She faces many obstacles as the battles escalate throughout this harrowing account, told through her own eyes. She walks an uncertain future, while visiting a colorful past. Through her tale, she represents the battered woman, spouse of the veteran, and wife and mother in marriage. Each is brought to life vividly as she engages in this war that enters her home. Through her discovery, she finds her Heavenly Father and hope to face her own hell. Her story is an example to any who need inspiration to face their own personal battles with the wars faced in life: the battered, the broken, the veteran, and the nonveteran. Take the journey and discover your own feelings of hope and strength.

 Raise Me Up (Sheet Music)
 Sir John Houghton's life chronicles the history of climate science.
 Discovering in the course of his study of the weather that climate change is a reality and does threaten the future of the planet, Houghton found out something else.
 Not all scientists were prepared to tell the truth.
 When truth is inconvenient, even threatening to certain interests, then those interests will go to great lengths to challenge it. He says 'The warning is now urgent. The science is now robust, time is moving on, and
 humankind is responding far too slowly. God has granted us stewardship of this planet . It is a creation full of wonder and we must do everything in our power to keep it so.' 'The warning has always been there,
 but opposing forces have prevented us from hearing it.' Sir John Houghton is still battling.

 This book is part of that battle.

The author knows well of the Power above all Powers, the Strength and Love above all Loves. Indeed he knows we have a Lord of Lords, an Alpha and Omega that always was, is, and forever shall be. Wayne relays if there were anything he would desire for readers of this work, it would be that each one facing the maladies of life could be restored as God is doing for Wayne. He also sends along the knowledge he is yet as Paul stated long ago and realizes My sinful self, my only shame. Things he would recommend to others are these: never give up! Pray and praise, dance and sing, for this is what a Christian's future holds. Agape love.
