Seeing Learners and Teachers Differently

HarperCollins UK
Ideal for studying the 2010 OCR GCSE in Mathematics A specification, this Homework Book provides plenty of practice and revision questions for all units (A, B, and C) at the Foundation tier. It includes problem-solving questions and the functional elements of mathematics - how mathematics is applied in everyday life. This book accompanies the Student's Book and Teacher's Resource. Online assessment through Dynamic Learning provides flexible, any time, anywhere assessment to help students progress. The highly experienced author team has previously worked on Hodder Education's best-selling series 'Graduated Assessment'.

A photocopiable GCSE workbook of questions and answers, written for teachers. There are 84 photocopiable sheets of exercises for pupils to use with the teacher's guidance. Wherever possible, questions have been graded according to their degree of difficulty.
Maths Frameworking Springer Science & Business Media

This book challenges some of the conventional wisdoms on the learning of mathematics. The authors use the computer as a window onto mathematical meaning-making. The pivot of their theory is the idea of webbing, which explains how someone struggling with a new mathematical idea can draw on supportive knowledge, and reconciles the individual's role in mathematical learning with the part played by epistemological, social and cultural forces.

Questions Arranged by Topic James Currey Publishers

A fascinating tour through parts of geometry students are unlikely to see in the rest of their studies while, at the same time, anchoring their excursions to the well known parallel postulate of Euclid. The author shows how alternatives to Euclid's fifth postulate lead to interesting and different patterns and symmetries, and, in the process of examining geometric objects, the author incorporates the algebra of complex and hypercomplex numbers, some graph theory, and some topology.

Interesting problems are scattered throughout the text. Nevertheless, the book merely assumes a course in Euclidean geometry at high school level. While many concepts introduced are advanced, the mathematical techniques are not. Singer's lively exposition and off-beat approach will greatly appeal both to students and mathematicians, and the contents of the book can be covered in a one-semester course, perhaps as a sequel to a Euclidean geometry course.

Secondary Two Mathematics SUNY Press
GCSE Mathematics has changed from three-tiers to two - Higher and Foundation. This series of resources has been designed to give students chances to succeed in the Linear and Modular AQA GCSE Mathematics specifications. They are clearly organised, and each chapter provides examples with explanatory notes.

Nuffield Advanced Chemistry Pearson Education

"One icy winter's evening in Budapest, a man runs straight into John Taylor as he walks home through the narrow streets. John falls over into the snow and looks up at the man's face. 'I felt very afraid. Because what I saw was me. My face looking down at me. My mouth saying sorry.' Who is the man, and how will John's life change?

Windows on Mathematical Meanings HarperCollins UK

Provides definitions and study tips for over sixteen hundred frequently used SAT words and includes strategies for memorizing the words and answering questions on the test.

OCR A Level Biology Student Letts and Lonsdale

Authored by Paul Hewitt, the pioneer of the enormously successful "concepts before computation" approach, Conceptual Physics boosts student success by first building a solid conceptual understanding of physics. The Three Step Learning Approach makes physics accessible to today's students.

Exploration - Ignite interest with meaningful examples and hands-on activities. Concept Development - Expand understanding with engaging narrative and visuals, multimedia presentations, and a wide range of concept-development questions and exercises. Application - Reinforce and apply key concepts with hands-on laboratory work, critical thinking, and problem solving.
