Some people prefer a little spice when it comes to the coloring of their cats. In Ginger Cats, artist Rachel M Brown shares a selection of her orange cat paintings. Many of the paintings are of one of Rachel's own ginger cats, an ill-tempered Manx that she and her husband welcomed into their lives. Whether it be a cat gazing out of a window or angel cats flying above, you will be sure to recognize something of your own ginger cat in these paintings. With over 20 color illustrations, this sweet book makes a perfect gift for the cat lover in your life. You can preview most of the paintings at Cat-Paintings.com, which also has paintings and illustrations of other colors of cats.

disenchanted, turned-off teens, mostly males. Then imagine those same students feeling poorly about themselves - feeling they are dumb because they have not been told it takes time to learn a second language. Imagine adults passing through their lives and finally one sticks around to show them they are loved. They are safe. They are good. Just imagine.

Piper Maclane wants a pet so badly, but she's allergic to everything. So she creates her own*out of slime! From Epic! Originals, My Pet Slime is a sweet, slimy series about a girl who makes the most of a challenging situation and is rewarded with a bit of magic! Piper wishes she could have a pet to care for and snuggle with and take to school for Show and Tell. All of the other kids have one. But she's allergic to every animal imaginable! So instead, she makes her own pet out of slime, with big eyes, a little mouth, and two arms just long enough for hugs. It would be the perfect pet for Piper, if it were real. When a strange turn of events brings her slime to life, Piper learns how fun, challenging, and messy it can be to care for a pet*especially one made out of slime! At the back of the book, learn about real-life slime and follow the recipe to create a "pet" of your own!

Cambridge University Press

Groomed for a place at a Big Name School since their obsessed, status-conscious helicopter parents passed out cigars at the Stockstill General Hospital Neonatal Unit, the privileged students of Pembrocton College Preparatory are ratcheting up the stakes in the race to get into the nation's most prestigious colleges. The PCP juniors are gloating, jubilant at the rumor that the valedictorian presumptive has received a B on her report card, a grade that will relegate her to in-state hell. Her heir apparent, a three-generation Yale legacy, is the sole mourner at the demise of her future—if only because her thoughtless academic lapse is going to derail his plans to attend MIT. Across town, in the graffiti-covered halls of Stockstill High School, the students slink to class, praying that they arrive without a knife wound—and dream of ivy-covered walls. And with the help of a take-no-prisoners principal and an enterprising parent, the students at SHS dare to encroach shamelessly on territory normally reserved for their wealthy private school rivals. Join the fray as a memorable cast of characters engages in the latest rage in extracurricular activities: college admissions as a blood sport. Laugh out loud funny, The Applicants lampoons the heights we scale—and the depths to which we sink—to get into the “right” college. Great Trainers Make It Happen Cambridge English Help your students learn the language they need to communicate in their personal, academic, and work lives in the 21st century, while building their collaborative and critical thinking skills. Personalise the class, focus on different strands and skills, flip the learning or teach traditionally
