Geography Lesson Poem Analysis
 Geography Lesson by Brian Patten Our teacher told us one day he would leave And sail across a warm blue sea To places he had only known from maps, And all his life had longed to be. The house he lived in was narrow and grey But in his mind's eye he could see Sweet-scented jasmine clinging to the walls, And green leaves burning on an orange tree.
 Geography Lesson by Brian Patten - Aoife's Notes
 Geography Lesson Summary Introduction. The poem is written from the perspective of a person who is observing the city from above, seeing it seated in a jet plane. As he ascends the heights in the sky, he is able to understand the real meaning of geography. It inculcates in the reader about political divisions.
