Versatile, inexpensive, and available in a vast range of colors and textures, paper enables you to express your creativity in diverse art forms - from pop-ups and origami to papier-mache and collage. What's more, you can easily produce handmade paper with very little special equipment. Papercraft School is a practical reference that every paper artist can use, regardless of level of ability or experience. It acts as a personal tutor, demonstrating with step-by-step instructions a variety of paper art projects, including a woven book cover, a cut-paper mobile, and homemade lavender-scented paper. The lively, down-to-earth practical text, the clear step-by-step photographs, and the projects you'll want to create - and have fun making - combine to make Papercraft School the ideal guide for both beginner and experienced papercrafters.

The Stubborn Root Leisure Arts

Over 60 colorful craft projects, decorations, and shrines that celebrate "Latino Style". Kathy Cano Murillo, known as the Crafty Chica, launched her publishing career with two lively books: Making Shadow Boxes & Shrines and La Casa Loca, which means "the crazy house." All of the projects that she designed for those two books are now featured in this classy-meet-campy companion collection of Latino-American pop art. The projects include everything from party gear to home decorations; garden accessories to gifts; and shrines to jewelry. More than 60 fabulous ideas incorporate paint, fabric, collage, embellishments, and a heavy dose of glitter. A book that every hip crafty chick needs in her collection.

KEEPING CHRISTMAS is bursting with sound advice and fresh ideas to enrich and safeguard your family Christmas heritage.

Crafty Mama Makes 49 Fast, Fabulous, Foolproof (baby & Toddler) Projects Literary Safari
In this sharply innovative collection, renowned poet Fred Chappell layers words and images to create a new and dramatic poetic form—the poem-within-a-poem. Like the shadow box in the volume's title, each piece consists of an inner world contained, framed, supported by an outer—the two interdependent, sometimes supplementary, often contrary. For example, the grim but gorgeous "The Caretakers" is a landscape that reveals another image inside it. Chappell also introduces sonnets in which the sestet nests within the octet. Play serves as an important component, but the poems do not depend upon gamesmanship or verbal strategems. Instead, they delicately or wittily trace human feelings, respond somberly to the news of the world, and rejoice in humankind's plentiful variety of attitudes and beliefs. Just as an x-ray can show the inner structure of a physical object, so the techniques in Shadow Box display the internal energies of the separate works. With this new form—the "enclosed" or "embedded" or "inlaid" poem—Chappell broadens the expressive possibilities of formal poetry, intrigues the imagination in an entirely new way, and offers surprise and revelation in sudden flashes. At once revolutionary and traditional, Shadow Box contains an Aladdin's trove of surprises.
