Adventures in Phonics Level a Macmillan International Higher Education Using Phonics to Learn Over 450 Sight Words can help beginning readers learn, in as little as a year, the high frequency words taught in prekindergarten through third grade while also developing their phonics skills. Most of the 450 plus sight words have been organized by their vowel sounds and spelling patterns for students to sound out. With the turn of each page, students are introduced to a new vowel sound and common spelling patterns that are used to make the sound. Each spelling pattern of the vowel sound has been color-coded differently. On the cover page, blue was used for the "o" in such words as "dog" and "gone" and red for the "aw" in the words "draw" and "saw." Different colors were used for additional spelling patterns of the short "o" sound. Some of the vowel sounds students will have practice decoding with these materials are listed below. (You can click on the ear icon to hear the sound from your eBook.) * sounds of "y" (funny, cry) * short vowel sounds * long vowel sounds * vowel sounds effected by a final "e" (ate, these, ride, home, use) * double vowel patterns (wait, eat, see, coat, blue) * CV and CCV Words (we, she) * special vowels \ü\ (room) and u\ (book) * diphthongs \ou\ (out, cow) and \oi\ (oil, boy) * r-controlled vowels \ar\ (barn), \or\ (corn), and \ər\ (teacher) There is also one additional page of non-sight words all having the letter combination "ow" for students to decode, which is meant to help students distinguish between the "ow" sound heard in "row" and the "ow" sound heard in "vow." In addition, digital alphabet flashcards are included in the eBook to help students learn the alphabet sounds (a prerequisite to sounding out the words), as well as flashcards for teaching soft "c" and "g," consonant blends, and the consonant digraphs "ch," "sh," "th," and

"gh," which they will encounter when decoding the words. Note that the paperback flashcards take the form of coloring pages for students to color. Fostering Word Learning, Comprehension, and Motivation

Panpac Education Pte Ltd

Covering the requirements for word-level work (phonics and spelling), this is a resource for teaching the Literacy Hour, the National Curriculum for English at Key Stage 1, and the Scottish Guidelines for English Language 5-14. It provides sections of structured lesson plans on the main elements of word-level work for this age-group; 125 linked copymasters that teach phonics, spelling and handwriting together; continuing and end-of-section assessments; photocopiable flashcards which cover all the National Literacy Strategy sightwords; a guide to phonic structures and a glossary for teachers; and a National Literacy Strategy planner and links for Scotland 5-14 Guidelines. Teaching Reading in Today's Elementary Schools Guilford Press Many pupils with dyslexia have poor spelling and handwriting, even when their reading is adequate. This practical yet evidence-based book shows teachers who work with pupils with dyslexia how they can effectively address these areas of weakness. Diane Montgomery introduces her popular Cognitive Process Strategies for Spelling (CPSS) and provides guidance on how this direct action can be successfully used in both primary and secondary contexts. The book describes dyslexia-friendly approaches in Logographic, Alphabetic and Orthographic phases – ‘the three faces’ of dyslexia. Best literacy practice for all children is illustrated in a developmental reading and spelling approach, handwriting as a support to literacy teaching is explained and strategies for overcoming handwriting difficulties are detailed from Reception onwards. Dyslexia-friendly Strategies for Reading, Spelling and Handwriting is full of new research, case examples and practical methods that have been tried and tested in the classroom. This is a must-read guide for all teachers and SENCOs in primary and secondary settings working with pupils with dyslexia. on supporting the literacy growth of beginning and struggling readers in grades K-2.

Adventures in Phonics

On The Mark Press
Intended for student use at home as a supplement to schoolwork or at school as a phonics text, this workbook presents the most common and regular sounds of vowels. The short vowels are presented first. The lesson for each vowel consists of six pages of exercises. On the first page, the vowel sound is introduced by a cartoon. On the second and third pages, students learn to recognize the short vowel sounds by saying the names of pictures and completing short vowel words. The remaining three pages of the lesson provide practice in using the vowel sound in context. The second half of the workbook deals with long vowel sounds, which are presented in the same manner as the short vowel sounds, except that the different spellings for each of the vowel sounds are treated individually to aid in the students' recognition of the long vowels. There are three reviews in the workbook: one for the short vowels, one for the long vowels, and a general review. (MG)
