The text introduces

each task, provides a Method, explains the criteria the speaking assessors use, offers tips, and grades responses - up to 3 or more examples for each task using the assessor's criteria (by a certified CELPIP instructor/ Level 3). This text easily provides any test-taker with the capability to score well beyond 'Canadian Language Benchmark 7' (CLB 7) for each task. There is also an academic word list to encourage vocabulary, and a grammatical review of sentence structure to aid in fluency and coherence. Finally, additional 'Practice Method Cards' have been added, one for each of the 8 Speaking tasks, to the end of this text to ensure test-taker awareness of 'role play' - to benefit their performance on the exam.  Canadian Professional Engineering and Geoscience: Practice and Ethics, 6e, is a unique and comprehensive text for today's Canadian students and practising professionals. Structured in five parts, the text is written in an approachable and engaging style that effectively covers practice and ethics topics while offering advice for readers to become effective professionals. The authors guide readers through professional licensing, practice, ethics, and environmental practice and ethics using history, case studies, examples, and images to bring the issues to life. The text devotes an entire chapter to preparing readers for the Professional Practice Examination (PPE), including practice questions to bolster success. Canadian Professional Engineering and Geoscience is up to date with Engineers Canada's practice and ethics syllabus and is the recommended study guide for this section of the PPE. The coverage in this sixth edition includes all provinces and territories of Canada and contains updated, new, and revised content and cases including the fascinating new case history: "Accidental Overdose: The Therac-25 Radiation Therapy Accidents." This edition has expanded its Employment, Management, and Consulting sections with new and relevant Canadian cases to keep readers engaged and connected to the content. Canadian
