It all started with Ayşe adopting the seed from one of the cherries she ate. Ayşe named it Seed Lili. The cherry seed was overjoyed and felt special when she got the name Lili. Now everyone would call her Lili, she would be known everywhere by that name. Ayşe kissed and loved her seed every day, and when the time came, she entrusted it to the bosom of the earth... As Seed Lili went from state to state to transform into a tree; loving, caring, and patience were necessary. This wonderful story of Mümine Yıldız and her little daughter Ayşe fills the hearts with crimson cherries... It invites us to a wonderful journey of discovery on endeavor, patience, love, friendship, fidelity and love of nature...

Welcome to the Seventh Terrace of Dante's tower of Purgatory. Here, in darkness lit only by a wall of flame, we find souls enslaved by the sin of lust. Lust is a great and terrible thing, and this collection of dark tales follows a mere handful of the many paths leading to the wall of fire.

Over the past ten years there has been a massive growth in call centres worldwide. These centres are said to represent the most dynamic growth area in white-collar employment internationally since the mid 1990s. Yet the footloose and global nature of the industry means that jobs will always be susceptible to outsourced operations, ICT developments, public sector subsidization of business restructuring and re-location, and cheaper operations elsewhere. This book conducts a thorough analysis of this modern phenomenon.

Piero della Francesca's Madonna del

Parto, a celebrated fifteenth-century Tuscan fresco in which the Virgin gestures to her partially open dress and her pregnant womb, is highly unusual in its iconography. Hubert Damisch undertakes an anthropological and historical analysis of an artwork he constructs as a childhood dream of one of humanity's oldest preoccupations, the mysteries of our origins, of our conception and birth. At once parodying and paying homage to Freud's seminal essay on Leonardo da Vinci, Damisch uses Piero's enigmatic painting to narrate our archaic memories. He shows that we must return to Freud because work in psychoanalysis and art has not solved the problem of what is being analyzed: in the triangle of author, work, and audience, where is the psychoanalytic component located?
