Although many were skeptical of the green chemistry movement at first, it has become a multimillion-dollar business. In preventing the creation of hazardous wastes, laboratories and corporations can save millions in clean up efforts and related health costs. This book supplies students with concepts commonly taught in undergraduate general chemistry and general engineering courses, but with a green perspective. It is unique in presenting an integrated discussion of green chemistry and engineering from first principles – not as an afterthought. Real-world examples show creative problem solving based on the latest issues.

The field of educational psychology is primarily concerned with teaching and learning. Educational psychology has a long historical past and an extensive record of conducting empirical research into the teaching/learning process. Educational psychology has also been involved with the topics of motivation, intelligence, memory, cognition, intellectual development and evaluation and assessment. Over the past 50 years, educational psychology has been predominantly involved with the learning processes of the normal, average student. However, over the past 20 years, mainstreaming and later inclusion has presented an additional challenge for educational psychologists and classroom teachers. This new book presents leading research from around the globe in all areas of educational psychology.

The examinations of the present era are becoming tough nuts to crack with the rise of every Sun on the academic horizon of the world. The tests related to General Mental Ability have also received greater attention of papersetters. Thus, these tests would be more difficult in test session commencing from 2002 AD. We, at RPH, decided to give an edge to the candidates such examinations. We worked hard for more than a year on the manuscript of this volume. What finally turned out to be, was a systematic and neatly planned compendium, exclusively dedicated to general mental ability tests. Students preparing of entrance test and competitive examination of MBA, CDS, NDA, CAT, MAT, CMAT, RRB, SCRA, SBIPO, SSC EXAMS, UPSC, GMAT, GINDOMAT, IBPSCWE, B.Ed. etc., would find it to be a boon for themselves. This systematic study and practice will help them succeed I their examinations. On behalf of publishers, we wish you all the best for your forthcoming examinations.
