Morrisson (Introduction) & 0 moreI Saw Water: An Occult Novel and Other Selected Writings ...Ithell Colquhoun (1906–1988) is remembered today as a surrealist artist, writer, and occultist. Although her paintings hang in a number of public collections and her gothic novel Goose of Hermogenes (1961) remains in print, critical responses to her work have been severely constrained by the limited availability of her art and writings. The publication of her second novel, I Saw Water ...I Saw Water: An Occult Novel and Other Selected Writings ... Highly symbolic and dense with allusions, Ithell Colquhoun's occult novel I Saw Water follows the narrator Sister Brigid (aka Ella) as she moves toward her 'second death'—a Theosophical concept whereby a person's astral body lives on for a time after death, eventually fading until the second death, at which point the soul moves on to occupy another body, thus completing the cycle of reincarnation. I Saw Water: An Occult Novel and Other Selected Writings ...The centerpiece of this book is the previously unpublished novell Saw Water. Written by the author and artist Ithell Colquhoun (1906-1988), it is set on the island of Ménéec, where Sister Brigid inhabits the Ianua Vitae Convent.
