Diagonal In A Parallel World Navigating through this Journey of Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder has with intensity made a profound imprint on my own self awareness. The level of honesty and transparency that was essential to accepting and overcoming my own fears, truths and ownerships was the hardest hurdles. In achieving the required inner balance through acceptance, I was given the clarity needed to see how easily a life can significantly transform simply by choice, and association. The magnitude of transformations and emotional upheavals by description were the best of times and the worst of times and literally had the power to transpire in a split second. The truths of Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder are without question one of the most perplexing set of societal dilemmas. Preventing this Brain based disability from reoccurring could in fact be just one societal based decision from a profound permanent positive change. However the lifelong adverse repercussion for those already impacted by FASD will never disappear; the quality of life or the standard to which they function can only change through implemented interventions and supports. It does not just take a community to raise a child with special needs it literally involves universal change and commitment! The Truth is Powerful Diagonal In A Parallel World is a reflection of truths that will hopefully be what is required to bring forth positive changes. T. L. Johnson

Close Close Close - And Know When! BIO Mr. Mollin, an American citizen, is currently one of Thailand’s National Veterans Tennis Champions (singles and doubles) along with being Asian ITF Tennis Champion (singles and doubles), the former owner of tennis clubs / academies in the United States as well as being the former Chairman and Publisher of one of the United Kingdom’s foremost Men’s, Women’s, and Young Teen’s fitness magazines. He brings a proven tennis expertise in training champions. Prior to his long business career, Mr. Mollin was coached and worked with the former Australian Davis Cup coach and probably the most famous tennis coach in the world, Mr. Harry Hopman. Mr. Mollin helped coach and trained with numerous Grand Slam and international champions such as John McEnroe and Vitas Gerulaitis. While in Asia, Mr. Mollin has overseen Tennis Programs at various tennis academies and clubs in Thailand and India. Currently, Mr. Mollin is The Director of Tennis for a Bangkok Sport Club in Thailand where he has been training tournament players from around Asia, the USA, and other locales. AWARDS For the past few years in Asia Mr. Mollin has participated and won the following competitions, among many others (over 200 tournaments won in Asia alone). Mr. Mollin is the only player known to have won 30 tournaments consecutively in the course of one year. Some recent wins include the following: 2019 ITF Men's Singles Winner, Doubles Champion in both 50's and 65's - Greta Farms 2019 ITF Asian Champion 60's Doubles 2018 THAILAND TEAM CHAMPIONSHIP WINNER - Member and winner of deciding matches 2012: ITF Men's Singles Winner -

Asian Championships 2012: Thai National Veteran's Singles Champion 2012: ITF Men's Doubles 35 Winner Pattaya Inter Club 2012: ITF Men's Doubles 55 Winner Pattaya Inter Club 2012: ITF Men's Singles Winner Pattaya Inter Club 2010: ITF Asian Seniors Winner - Singles 2010: ITF Asian Seniors Winner - Doubles 2012, 2011: Thai National Veteran's Singles and Doubles 2009, 2008: Champion 2008: VLTA Mixed Doubles Champion 2008: VLTA Senior Champion 2008: Pattaya

As in all sport executed at the top level it looks so, so simple and straightforward. Those that have tried, at every level, know otherwise. Everyone can benefit from a cursory glance, lesson or full blown training regimen. I can think of no one with a greater depth of knowledge or skill in identifying those key details that will improve your game than Harold Mollin!" - James Y. Definitely Crazy In A Good Way "As a psychologist, I know there are crazy people in a good way and crazy people in a bad way. From my life experience, I also know there are good pains in the ass and bad pains.

Harold Mollin is definitely crazy in the good way - never met someone so crazy about tennis. [...] Most importantly, from an educational viewpoint, Harold sincerely enjoys the progress all his students are making in their tennis. Life, not only tennis, is all about beating/winning from yourself. Harold is certainly making a significant contribution to my ambition of becoming a worldwide top 100 player in the ITF Seniors (50+) circuit!" - Vittorio B. Psychologist, PhD His Tennis Passion Is Contagious "Harold Mollin's passion for tennis is contagious, not to mention is he one of the best in the world on the seniors tour (for numerous age groups), but his knowledge and deep understanding for the game can inspire all ages and aspiring tennis players of all levels" - Peter Lucas (former ranked Australian junior) Harold's Tennis Tips Are Key Pointers "In between tennis lessons, Harold's tips are key pointers that help me strengthen my game" - Camille P. Because of this man, I even have become more fanatic about tennis "Was introduced to the beautiful game of tennis by my parents whom i forever remain grateful for but the appreciation even became bigger when 4 years ago i became acquainted with Mr Harold Mollin. Not only does this man eat, speak and dream tennis, he has played and lived it and his match analysis and player profiles are spot on. Because of this man, I even have become more fanatic about tennis even more and its all thanks to him, my love for the sport has risen to greater heights. Since I left Bangkok last year after 7 great years, I still watch the game and love it with passion but its not the same with my man Harold by my side giving me the blow by blow bits of every game and play. He is a man who would be of great help to any individual with hopes of making it big on the tennis circuit." - Farai Ngoni B. It's an awesome book... "It's an awesome book... bought it for my kindle on amazon ... great tips and awesome drills. I really like your drills... My student and I do the serve and volley drill she calls it the serve and volley game first to 10 lose at point if you double fault or miss the 1st volley ... we also do the 8 deep volley or overhands without allowing any ball to bounce and the volley game half court only start the rally and play it out lose a point if the ball gets over your head ... your drill are on point in reinforcing skills and tactical lessons..." - Clay R. Thanks Harold Mollin ! You are the MAN ! "I used to have a weak serve because hitting the ball at below the highest point robbed me of a full swing. This simple but effective point about hitting at the highest point helped me hit stronger serves and slice as well. Thanks Harold Mollin ! You are the MAN !" - Steve Teoh Get the best out of our students... "Although I've been coaching for many years, and we all have our own methods to get the best out of our students, I will always look and listen to what my peers are doing. Quite often I will invite a coach to my sessions to look at my students with fresh eyes, i never feel threatened or worried about losing a student, in fact more often than not it makes them feel even more important, and are grateful, I have used many of your quotes thank you Harold, I am planning to visit Bangkok in the future." - Roger Nadal Tennis

Publishing, Ltd. In volume I, Kleinberg-Levin interprets five key words in Heidegger's project. In this second volume, he illuminates their significance for Heidegger's phenomenology of perception and his philosophy of history. At stake is the possibility of a new experience and understanding of being. Taking us beyond the metaphysical understanding of being, Heidegger proposes to introduce a new key word Seyn (beyng). Beyng is the Da-sein-appropriating event in which a clearing occurs as an open dimension for the time-space interplay of concealment and unconcealment, an interplay within which beings are experienced in regard to the various modes and inflections of presence and absence that the grammar of temporalities articulates. Concentrating on the appropriation of seeing and hearing as capacities and capabilities bearing promising potentialities that could be developed, Kleinberg-Levin examines seeing and hearing in the context of Heidegger's critique of the history of metaphysics, wherein vision has served as paradigm for knowledge, truth, and reality. He shows that, in Heidegger's philosophy of history, seeing and hearing are given a role in the transformation of the character of humanity, redeeming their own inherent potential. Perceptual experience has undergone accelerating processes of deformation and reification, encouraging a disposition that makes it serve technological and technocratic imperatives; but we might begin to redeem the promising potential in seeing and hearing, turning their damaged and dehumanized character, and their violence, towards the creation of a new planetary existence—what Heidegger imagines through the topology of the fourfold: earth and sky, mortals and the gods who embody our ideals. In this project, we are put in question by a responsibility that summons us, in our seeing and hearing, to the response-abilities most befitting our historically shared sense of an achieved humanity. Knowledge and Critical Pedagogy Lulu Press, Inc Oxford Studies in Ancient Philosophy is a volume of original articles on all aspects of ancient philosophy. The articles may be of substantial length, and include critical notices of major books. OSAP is now published twice yearly, in both hardback and paperback. 'The serial Oxford Studies in Ancient Philosophy (OSAP) is fairly regarded as the leading venue for publication in ancient philosophy. It is where one looks to find the state-of-the-art. That the serial, which presents itself more as an anthology than as a journal, has traditionally allowed space for lengthier studies, has tended only to add to its prestige; it is as if OSAP thus declares that, since it allows as much space as the merits of the subject require, it can be more entirely devoted to the best and most serious scholarship.' Michael Pakaluk, Bryn Mawr Classical Review Knowledge and the World: Challenges Beyond the Science Wars Reality Press

A village name often found in rural parts of North Africa, where sadly, years of drought have made vowels extremely scarce. B. Å. It may be one letter, but do you know how to say it, smarty-pants? C. Uh. A town in South Australia, so-called because nobody could remember the original name, Ozenkadnook. D. Zed. A small city in Florida, named after the way its many British-born residents pronounce the last letter in the alphabet. Answer: B. In Sweden, there are at least eight villages that go by the name Å, and plenty more in Norway and Denmark. In these Scandinavian languages, 'Å' means "small river." Which of these places has the largest number of active volcanoes in the world? A. Indonesia. Residents regularly have to outrun lava. B. Iceland. They should call it Fireland instead. C. The teacher's lounge. They're always blowing their tops in there. D. Disney World, near Orlando, Florida. But don't worry, it's only a show, folks. ANSWER: A. Indonesia has a staggering 127 active volcanoes, many of which erupt regularly.

The Awakening iUniverse Some key aspects of contemporary epistemology deserve to be challenged, and How to Know does just that. This book argues that several long-standing presumptions at the heart of the standard analytic conception of knowledge are false, and defends an alternative, a practicalist conception of knowledge. Presents a philosophically original conception of knowledge, at odds with some central tenets of analytic epistemology. Offers a dissolution of epistemology's infamous Gettier problem — explaining why the supposed problem was never really a problem in the first place. Defends an unorthodox conception of the relationship between knowledge-that and knowledge-how, understanding knowledge-that as a kind of knowledge-how. A Personal Journey Into the Quantum World Peace Life-Changing Verses about Men is not your typical devotional book. It attempts to answer the question, "How does the Bible describe a real Christian man?" Its objective is to enable Christians to personally apply specific Bible verses to their personal lives. At the same time, you will learn more about your Bible as well as receive an in-depth discussion of the verses selected. You may find yourself greatly challenged with Life-Changing Verses about Men. The objective is to encourage you to become more Christlike in your living. Through reading Life-Changing Verses about Men, you will become very familiar with God's story in the Bible. "This is a great book to have with you when you have a few minutes. It reduces some of your favorite verses into bite-sized chunks that you can absorb. Your life would be better if you took five minutes to read one chapter a day." 100 years after Proust's death, In Search of Lost Time remains one of the greatest works in World Literature. At 3,000 pages, it can be intimidating to some. This short volume invites first-time readers and veterans alike to view the novel in a new way. Marcel Proust (1871-1922) was arguably France's best-known literary writer. He was the author of stories, essays, translations, and a 3,000-page novel, In Search of

Lost Time (1913-27). This book is a brief guide to Proust's magnum opus in which Joshua Landy invites the reader to view the novel as a single quest—a quest for purpose, enchantment, identity, connection, and belonging—through the novel's fascinating treatments of memory, society, art, same-sex desire, knowledge, self-understanding, self-fashioning, and the unconscious mind. Landy also shows why the questions Proust raises are important and exciting for all of us: how we can feel at home in the world; how we can find genuine connection with other human beings; how we can find enchantment in a world without God; how art can transform our lives; whether an artist's life can shed light on their work; what we can know about the world, other people, and ourselves; when not knowing is better than knowing; how sexual orientation affects questions of connection and identity; who we are, deep down; what memory tells us about our inner world; why it might be good to think of our life as a story; how we can feel like a single, unified person when we are torn apart by change and competing desires.

Finally, Landy suggests why it's worthwhile to read the novel itself-how the long, difficult, but joyous experience of making it through 3,000 pages of prose can be transformative for our minds and souls.

A journey revealing the world we believe to know, that we depend on and have come to accept as we perceive it. By dissecting the paradigms of the social order, separating myth from fact and exploring other options that go against the status quo we can begin creating new choices for ones own liberation physically, mentally and even financially that has been hidden from mankind. Exposing the secrets so we may break the cycle of systematic conditioning committed against society, an agenda which is inevitably moving toward a specific world order if the population remains unaware. To hopefully achieve a life of absolute freedom and endless possibilities. One free from the parameters of commercialism, consumerism, unjust laws, media propaganda, money, corporate influence and government by revealing these hidden systems of control.

 A "blind spot" suggests an obstructed view, or partisan perception, or a localized lack of understanding. Just as the brain "reads" the "blind spot" of the visual field by a curious process of readjustment,

Shakespearean drama disorients us with moments of unmastered and unmasterable knowledge, recasting the way we see, know and think about knowing. Focusing on such moments of apparent obscurity, this volume puts methods and motives of knowing under the spotlight, and responds both to inscribed acts of blind-sighting, and to the text or action blind-sighting the reader or spectator. While tracing the hermeneutic yield of such occlusion is its main conceptual aim, it also embodies a methodological innovation: structured as an internal dialogue, it aims to capture, and stake out a place for, a processive intellectual energy that enables a distinctive way of knowing in academic life; and to translate a sense of intellectual "community" into print.
