Jumanji (Read by Robin Williams) Chris Van Allsburg The Stranger The Stranger is a children's book written in 1986 by the American author Chris Van Allsburg. It tells a story of a stranger with no memory of who he is or where he is from. He recuperates in the home of a farmer and his family during the fall season. Plot. One fall day, while Uncle Bailey is riding down the road in his truck, he hears a thump! The Stranger (Van Allsburg book) - Wikipedia Chris Van Allsburg is my favorite children's author/illustrator and "The Stranger" is one of his best. I own at least one copy of each of his books. This one was purchased for a gift but the moment I opened it and saw the illustrations I knew something was not right. The illustrations were not as vivid as those in older editions. Stranger, The: Amazon.co.uk: Van Allsburg, Chris: Books The Stranger by Chris Van Allsburg is a story about a farmer who accidentally hit a man with his car. The farmer took the man home to his house and gave him a standard check up. The farmer's daughter saw the man outside the next morning playing with rabbits and noticed it was odd that the rabbits did not run away when the man approached him; she had noticed he had a way with animals. The Stranger by Chris Van Allsburg - Goodreads Students can also learn from Van Allsburg's description of the stranger. He is an unusual and mysterious character. Because he is not typical, he is interesting. Van Allsburg describes his physical appearance: "The man on the sofa was dressed in odd, rough leather clothing." He describes his actions: "He looked up with terror and jumped to his feet.
