Jill Winger, creator of the award-winning blog The Prairie Homestead, introduces her debut The Prairie Homestead Cookbook, including 100+ delicious, wholesome recipes made with fresh ingredients to bring the flavors and spirit of homestead cooking to any kitchen table. With a foreword by bestselling author Joel Salatin The Pioneer Woman Cooks meets 100 Days of Real Food, on the Wyoming prairie. While Jill produces much of her own food on her Wyoming ranch, you don't have to grow all—or even any—of your own food to cook and eat like a homesteader. Jill teaches people how to make delicious traditional American comfort food recipes with whole ingredients and shows that you don't have to use obscure items to enjoy this lifestyle. And as a busy mother of three, Jill knows how to make recipes easy and delicious for all ages. "Jill takes you on an insightful and delicious journey of becoming a homesteader. This book is packed with so much easy to follow, practical, hands-on information about steps you can take towards integrating homesteading into your life. It is packed full of exciting and mouth-watering recipes and heartwarming stories of her unique adventure into homesteading. These recipes are ones I know I will be using regularly in my kitchen." - Eve Kilcher These 109 recipes include her family's favorites, with maple-glazed pork chops, butternut Alfredo pasta, and browned butter skillet corn. Jill also shares 17 bonus recipes for homemade sauces, salt rubs, sour cream, and the like—staples that many people are surprised to learn you can make yourself. Beyond these recipes, The Prairie Homestead Cookbook shares the tools and tips Jill has learned from life on the homestead, like how to churn your own butter, feed a family on a budget, and experience all the fulfilling satisfaction of a DIY lifestyle.

In this beautiful book, Paul and Niko of Earl of East London share the secrets behind the gorgeously scented candles they create at their studio. As well as the basic steps to preparing and pouring candles at home, the book includes a fascinating exploration of the art of building scent, so that the reader can create their own signature fragrances. Paul and Niko are devoted to capturing memories and feelings in scent, and in this book you can learn how to combine different essential oils to trigger different emotions and memories, whether that is the recollection of a childhood holiday conjured up by a hint of mandarin and seaweed, or an imagined walk in your grandparents' garden scented with basil and parsley. Not only is candle making and scent development a wonderfully relaxing craft, it is also a unique way to create personalised gifts or to create a signature scent for your own home or special event.

This easy, step-by-step instruction manual is for anyone wanting to learn how to make soy container candles for profit. With so much misinformation on the internet about candle making, I've cut out many of the variables so you have a clear, precise place to start in this craft. Once you have a solid place to start and feel grounded you'll be at a better place to grow your own business as you see fit. Warning: this is a detailed guide! (Painfully detailed some might argue) Within these pages I promise to give you all the down and dirty in this business as I know it. Details on supplies, suppliers, trouble-shooting, learning, and even a little research where applicable. This product-based guide is perfect for those considering candle making as a small business or program fundraiser. I give you specific information to go forward immediately with your own project and evaluate for yourself if this craft is a viable place for your business or fundraiser. I share my mistakes so you can jump ahead to the profit-making in your own venture. Seriously, I can't even believe the dumb mistakes I've made. Fortunately I don't really believe in dumb mistakes - I believe in learning opportunities at every turn in the road. Let my mistakes give you a solid path to navigate so you can focus on the direction you intend for your own business. You'll find links to specific supplies and suppliers I currently use in my own business as well as specific recipes and step-by-step instructions I use to create profitable, quality, all-natural, sellable products. I'll even tell you the exact wax I use, the specific amount of fragrance oils I use, and what containers have been the most successful and profitable in our business. I include a trouble-shooting section for specific problems commonly experienced in soy candle making and offer specific, tested solutions to help get your project and learning on the right track to success. Want to learn about the adhesion of wax to glass containers? It's in here. Want to avoid the dreaded sinkholes in your candles? That's in here, too! I include specific links to suppliers as well as links for additional learning for those interested and a small manufacturing business perspective that I employ every day in my own business. Want to know why I chose the soy wax we currently use in our business? In this guide I tell you what I like about it and about the helpful chemists at the wax manufacturer that helped me learn to use it correctly. Are you interested in the hand-made makers movement? This book will help. I want to be part of your success and invite you to contact me with your projects and questions. I invite you to be part of making this a success by contributing to future updates, too! Hand-made, small, mom & pop manufacturing in the United States is alive and well and I'd love to hear how this book contributed to your own success. If I have succeeded, I believe you will, too. I really do believe that the more we share, the more we all will succeed. These -secrets- aren't mine to hoard and leave you struggling on your own to figure out. These -secrets- are just information nuggets I have gathered through trial, error, research, and learning in my own business and I'd be thrilled to know I helped someone else over a hurdle. I know your struggle as a small business owner. I know you don't have access to a research and development department to get your product-based business up and running. (At least I didn't!) I really do want to see small manufacturing businesses grow and thrive, so here's an effort to see that happen. I hope this helps and I'd be thrilled to hear back from you on your successes!
