Six-level general English course OUP Oxford

The first four levels of a new video series to accompany the New Headway. It can be used as an additional component to the New Headway, or as a supplement to any course at the appropriate level. Key Features Each level consists of six self-contained comedy stories looking at the lives and misadventures of four people in their twenties who share a house. The syllabus is closely linked to the New Headway. Each episode provides a natural context to consolidate the grammatical, functional and lexical areas covered by the course, and to develop listening skills. Key language is controlled and contextualized throughout. Each episode provides clear grammar and functional language, with an emphasis on developing communicative skills. The video is supported by an Activity Book for students and a Video Guide for teachers. Teacher's Book Teaching notes for each episode Help on using video in the classroom Cultural information Optional activities Answers to exercises where appropriate

New Headway OUP Oxford

Providing a foundation in the structure of the language by gradually building students' understanding of the basic grammar, vocabulary, and functions of English.
