Believers are called to live a life of faith. In fact, the Bible says that without faith, it is impossible to please God (Hebrews 11:6). But how do we get that faith? The answer is in the Word of God. Faith comes by hearing and hearing by the Word (Romans 10:17). In Confessing God's Word, Dr. Maureen Anderson helps to zero in on the appropriate scripture for any situation. The promises of God are personalized and organized to aid in effective prayer and counsel.

Confessions of a Pastor's Wife "In this book, Sharon identifies herself as the "wife of a pastor" and tells her story with unusual transparency. This story includes fascinating anecdotes, faith demanding challenges, difficult valleys, and great victories. All who read this story, including women who serve in a similar role, will find purpose, inspiration, practical guidance, and spiritual direction. My wife, Esther, and I attended the church where Lee and Sharon served as pastors. To us Sharon was an ideal "pastor's wife" and an outstanding role model for others." George Flattery George M. Flattery, Ed.D. Chancellor, Global University Founder, Network211, Authored: "The Paradox of Leadership," "Becoming Great through Service," "A Systematic Approach to a Vibrant Relationship," and more. "You'll strike up a friendship with Sharon as you relive her stories. Be prepared to nod in agreement, giggle and cringe as you encounter the nuances of life in the fast lane of ministry. You'll come to know the heart and intent of the author as you read the real-life experiences of a ministry family. It's a fun read that packs truth and purpose into the suitcase of reality." Judy Rachels Judy Rachels is a lifelong woman in ministry. District Women's Ministry

Director. National Director of Network of Women's Ministers. Sought after speaker. Confessions of a Pastor's Wife is the real, raw and rare look behind the scenes of the trials and triumphs of a woman and her family walking out obedience to God. You will laugh and you will cry. You will realize that life is not easy, even for a preacher's wife, But God is good all the time. How to pray the Word of God is a practical workbook that will help you to kick start your prayer life by using word-based declarations. Most people know the importance of prayer and they understand the need to pray consistently in their private lives but they often do not know how to pray. This book seeks to provide a solution to the Christian who must pray but does not know where to start. The first section of the book teaches on the importance of the bible and the significance of speaking the Word of God in your prayers whereas the second section provides practical word-based confessions and declarations for different prayer needs. The book covers a wide variety of topics and seeks to demonstrate how the word of God is declared, so that the reader can be able to come up with his own word- based declarations. This book is a useful tool for Christian gatherings of any form, to ensure that our meetings do not end without corporate prayer and declaring the word of God, which is a sign of our agreement with God on what He has said about and to us.

We know Jesus the Savior, but have we met Jesus, Prince of Peace? When did we accept vengeance as an acceptable part of the Christian life? How did violence and power seep into our understanding of faith and grace? For those troubled by this trend toward the sword, perhaps there is a better way. What if the message of Jesus differs radically from the drumbeats of war we hear all around us? Using his own journey from war crier to peacemaker and his in-depth study of peace in the scriptures, author and pastor Brian Zahnd reintroduces us to the gospel of Peace.

Unmerited Favor CreateSpace

Today, too many Christians are followers of novelty, religious fads, and strange new doctrines unheard of in the history of the church. On the contrary, to be a Christian is to join the great "cloud of witnesses" (Heb 12:1) through the ages, confessing with the Body of Christ the "faith that was once for all delivered to the saints" (Jude 3). This is what Paul called the "good confession" (1 Tim 6:12). This workbook will lead you in a study of what it means to be a Christian from the vantage point of the Bible, the ancient Christian creeds, and the Protestant confessions of the sixteenth century.

The Pastor's Justification WestBow Press

Sacrament of Mercy is a guide to help make the experience of the Sacrament of Reconciliation more fruitful. After briefly reviewing how the practice of confession has developed through the centuries, Fr. Thomas Weinandy presents the various theological and pastoral aspects of this sacrament. Drawing on his wide pastoral experience, he emphasizes how Reconciliation effectively leads to continual conversion and spiritual growth. Twenty-five scripturally based reflections guide the reader to examine his or her life, to acknowledge and repent of sin, and come to experience the compassion, mercy and healing grace of God.

Life Confessions Zondervan

In a world fraught with evil, encroaching darkness, violence, strife, confusion, attacks on families, failing finances, and health, distractions and emotional instability, mans usual reaction is that of despondency and negative proclamations. In the beginning, when God saw the darkness that covered the face of the earth, He decreed what He wanted to see rather than agree with what He saw. Since we are made in His image, rather than confessing the problem (darkness) we are to confess the solution (the WORD) thereby transforming darkness to light. (Rom 10:10) For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. Believing and confessing are an important part of our Christian walk. What becomes manifest in our lives depends on our faith and confession. When our lips contradicts the word of God, we prevent His work in and through us, but when we get our hearts and lips in line with His word, He manifests His grace in us and His power flows through us. Godfessions is the first of four compilations of inspired confessions of Gods promises. This book will help you cultivate an awareness of your spiritual blessings and the limitless power of God as well as enable you grow stronger in your faith, as you establish the truth of Gods word over you and your household through your declarations. Start Godfessing! Your Change is here!

Our lives invariably go in the direction of our tongues. You are what you are today because of the words you spoke yesterday. You will become tomorrow what you are speaking today. This book contains 62 of the most powerful, life-changing declarations from God's Word that you can ever speak over yourself. Each declaration comes with an inspiring commentary that is sure to light up your day. If you need victory over any aspect of your life, be it your health, relationships, finances, studies, career or ministry... or if you are struggling with any need, any pain, any problem: this book is for you!Ebenezer Nfor and his wife Rosaline have been serving as missionaries in Douala, Cameroon, for more than 15 years now. They are blessed with three children: Mishael, Joel and James. While Ebenezer ministers as a pastor, Rose works with university students and young ladies. Ebenezer was led to write this book when, in the course of his ministry, he saw the overwhelming need to show people how to confess God's Word over their lives in such a way as to obtain extraordinary results.

A Farewell to Mars Xlibris Corporation

Fourteen Presbyterian scholars enter into conversations with the confessions of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and examine the major theological themes that make the confessions such foundational commitments of faith. This collection of insightful essays provides readers with a clear understanding of the confessions from different periods of the church's life. These conversations with the confessions found in the PC(USA)'s Book of Confessions include some illuminating commentary on why they were written and demonstrate how they can be used to address major theological issues. This important work will help scholars, pastors, and church leaders interested in studying the Reformed tradition appreciate the role of the confessions in shaping Christian life and faith today.

HOW TO BE A BLESSING to YOUR CHURCH Whitaker House

The Bible states that the tongue has the power of life and death (Proverbs 18:21). So often we are speaking death over our life and circumstances by contradicting what God has already declared to be true in His Word. God assured Joshua of prosperity and success in his life if he would do three things: 1) meditate on His Word day and night; 2) be careful to do everything written in that Word; 3) not let the Word depart from his mouth (Joshua 1:8). When we confess God's Word out loud, we are agreeing with what He has already decreed about our situations. My Confession of Faith is a collection of declarations from the Word of God intended to be read aloud in much the same way that Jesus proclaimed repeatedly in the wilderness, "It is written!" It is a tool to help the believer "prophesy" like Ezekiel and speak life to the dry bones and difficult challenges of their life.

Assembly was a crucial part of the history of scriptures.The Old Testament was written to assemblies.The Epistles were written to churches (assemblies).Hence the need to know the What, How and Why.This book is meant to be a guide albeit a Scripturally-researched one in our knowledge of the blessedness of the local church."How to be a blessing" is a follow-up book to an earlier written one, "An Assembly Required."This will give further direction in what it takes to give your local church the advantage of your membership.Things to avoid. What and what not to do.

My Confession of Faith Wipf and Stock Publishers

When I gave my life to the Lord, I used to get angry with myself all the time and I felt hopeless. I kept falling into sin and making dumb decisions that kept me from being successful. How could I be so smart and still be so stupid that I can't beat this thing? Self-pity began to gain strength. I got depressed, at one point I was homeless, and I gave up on myself. I walked away from God many times. One day my mother prayed with me and gave me a Bible and told me to read Romans. I later became a Minister. I couldn't get it right because I couldn't get past my addiction and my own self-interests. How could this be? I am a Minister. Who does the man of God go to when he is failing? The answer is clearly God. I became convinced that my testimony may help some other Ministers who struggle with the same things I did. Like me, they may be waiting on God and hoping He hears them, too! One day I accepted that even Preachers can fail. I wasn't doing anything constructive with my life at that time. I decided to trust God. I didn't know if He would do it, but I prayed anyway. I soon believed that if I asked God for faith, and told people the truth, God was going to change me. Today, I am a Minister in good standing in a church in Orange County, CA and the CEO of a nonprofit called A Touch of Love Works. When you read A Preacher's Confession, you discover that in spite of everything that is wrong with me, there is a side of me that wants to make the world a better place and I will do my part. This is my story. To God be the glory.

Just like natural laws, there are spiritual laws with cause and effect. God set the universe in motion with the power of His words and established the law of confession, but many believers have suffered needlessly by misunderstanding the power of their words. Dr. Bill Winston, pastor, Bible teacher, and host of the national television program Believer s Walk of Faith broadcast to over 100 million homes, reveals scriptural examples and vital teaching on the importance of the spoken word. Believers will uncover the enemy s deceptive plan to use their own words against them and what they can do to turn their situation around. 'One of the best things that ever happened to me, my family, and my church, was the revelation of the law of confession - we learned that the moment we win the battle over our words, we win the battle!' Dr. Bill Winston Controlling your words is one of the biggest challenges anyone will face in this life; the Bible reveals that the power of life and death are in the words you say. As you begin to change the words you speak, you will rewrite their future and revolutionize your life.
