John G. Lake (1870-1935) was an early leader in the Pentecostal movement, and brushed elbows with some of the most influential founders. Throughout his writings and sermons, he speaks of Charles Parham, William Seymour, Maria Woodworth-Etter, J. A. Dowie, and many others. Africa as a missionary, and held a pastorate in Spokane, Washington for many years, all while running "Healing Rooms," where he and his followers ministered to the sick so effectively that Spokane was called the healthiest city in America at the time. Pneumatology refers to the study of the Holy Spirit in light of the Bible. It is an area many parts of the Body of Christ have overlooked, which has truly hindered our spiritual growth and the advancement of God's kingdom in the earth today. John G. Lake walked with the Holy Spirit and sought after Him ever so carefully. He was a man of study and wanted to know how God healed the sick and how Christ worked through man by the Spirit's involvement. This book is a compilation of Mr. Lake's own sermons on the subject of the Holy Spirit. Each is filled with divine wisdom and revelation, and should truly help us understand the wonderful third person of the Trinity - The Holy Spirit.

God's Role and Our Role in the Pursuit of Holiness You are never beyond the reach of God's grace. Neither are you ever beyond the need of God's grace. Without grace we'd never come to Christ. But being a Christian is more than just coming to Christ, it's about growing and becoming more like Jesus. This pursuit of holiness is hard work, and as we enter into this discipline, we sometimes lose sight of grace. Jerry Bridges helps us steer clear of this disastrous distraction, offering a clear and thorough explanation of the gospel and what it means to the believer. Explore how the same grace that brings us to Christ also grows us in Christ. Includes full study guide (which was previously sold as a stand-alone discussion guide, ISBN 9781576839904).
