1 Month Study Plan: Week 4. Okay, it's the week of the real thing! You should still spend a bulk of the week studying, but you'll want to make sure to take a day or two off before the test. Do not cram. Since this is the final week, you'll want to focus on the areas of the SAT where you know you can pick up some extra points.

How to Study for the SAT in 1 Month - Kaplan Test Prep

Construct a study schedule: Before you even pick up a book you need to have a clear idea of your time commitment over the next month. Your schedule should be balanced with two weeks of 4-5 hours of studying per week, and two weeks of 8 hours of studying per week. This way you are prepared but also not mentally exhausted.
