It won an honourable mention in the Association of Nigerian Authors poetry awards that year, and its reputation remains as high as ever today. Reading the poems here, one is struck by a quiet eruption of energy, like the calmness of a river masking the immense energy beneath. As well as Naked Testimonies, Toyin Adewale-Gabriel is the author of Die Aromaforscher in and Flackernde Kerzen. She is the editor of 25 New Nigerian Poets and co-editor of Inkwells and Breaking The Silence. She is a Fellow of the Akademie Schloss Solitude and has been Writer in Residence at the Villa Waldberta, Munich and The Baltic Centre for Writers and Translators, Visby, Sweden. She holds an MA degree from the Obafemi Awolowo University, and has published poems, stories and book reviews in many journals and newspapers. She has served in an executive capacity on the board of the Association of Nigerian Authors, whose official annual journal, ANA Review, she also edited. Toyin is renowned for her readings of both poems and stories to audiences in Africa, Europe and North and South America. She founded the Women Writers of Nigeria, WRITA, in 1991. Principles of Accounts for the Caribbean: 6th Edition Frank Wood's

 Can calcium and magnesium ("hardness") in drinking water contribute to preventing disease? This book documents the outputs of an unprecedented group of experts assembled by the World Health Organization to address this question. It includes their comprehensive consensus view on what is known and what is not about the role and possible health benefit of calcium and magnesium in drinking-water. Also included is a series of chapters each authored by internationally renowned experts reviewing the state of the art in different aspects including: global dietary calcium and magnesium intakes; the contribution of drinking water to calcium and magnesium intake; health significance of calcium and magnesium; role of drinking-water in relation to bone metabolism; epidemiological studies and the association of cardiovascular disease risks with water hardness and magnesium in particular; water production; technical issues and economics. In both developed and developing countries, typical diets are often deficient in calcium and magnesium--essential minerals which are necessary for the development of strong bones and teeth, and for cardiovascular function. At the same time, there is evidence that consuming "hard" drinking-water may be associated with reduced risks for some diseases. Climate change and other ongoing changes will increase the use of high tech treatments--for example desalination and reclamation of polluted waters and mean that the issue will be of increasing future importance. Frank Wood's Business Accounting Basics Pearson Higher Ed Guides readers through the maze of financial terms and accounting concepts, providing up to date and in depth coverage of annual accounts, management accounting and financial management. Business Accounting 1 & 2 Pearson Education This self-test book is packed full of multiple choice questions and will be an invaluable tool for all students in their study of accounting. The numerous exam-style questions will also help students sitting accounting examinations with their revision. The Multiple Choice

Question Book may be used on its own or in conjunction with any introductory accounting text, including Frank Wood's Business Accounting Volume 1. The book will be suitable for students taking introductory accounting courses at college or university as well as those preparing for professional accountancy examinations.

For over ten years,

Weygandt, Kieso, Kimmel, Trenholm, Kinnear Accounting Principles has been praised by both students and instructors across the country for its outstanding visual design, its carefully integrated pedagogy, and its excellent writing style and clarity of presentation. Our main focus continues to be 'Student Success in Accounting' and the new fifth edition package further enables both instructors and students to achieve successful learning outcomes. It introduces challenging accounting concepts with examples that are familiar to the student with a stepped-out pedagogy that breaks down complex topics making the material more manageable. This connection to their everyday lives helps build student motivation, a key driver of student time spent on assignments and ultimately their mastery of the concepts. Weygandt Accounting Principles, Fifth Canadian Edition enables students to become independent and successful learners by including a variety of additional resources, more opportunities to use technology, and new features that empower students to apply what they have learned in the classroom to the world outside the classroom. The seamlessly integrated digital and print resources to accompany Accounting Principles, Fifth Canadian Edition offer additional tools for both instructors and students in order to help students experience success. This book has to enable students to attain knowledge and understanding in carrying out cash and credit transactions in accounting. It has been structured into a number of parts to enable students to undertake a particular topic to meet their specific needs. Whilst the book centres on the two main topics of Recording and Accounting for Cash and Credit Transactions, other topics, such as Introduction to double entry have been included, since competence is needed in the double entry system of book-keeping when undertaking accounting transactions. Each chapter in the book includes 'Student Activities' to enable students to assess their progress. Practice assessments have been devised to simulate the AAT Central Assessments and the ACCA

Multi-choice assessments. These are designed for the student to gain a valuable indication as to their competence and readiness for undertaking either the AAT or ACCA assessments. Transaction Accounting for NVQ Level 2 is suitable for students studying the following courses: the Lead Body for Accounting NVQ Level 2, AAT Foundation NVQ Level 2, AAT Diploma in Accounting

(for non-UK students), ACCA Accounting Technician Certificate and	Edexcel Accounting at NVQ Level 2. It is also ideal for other accounting courses where	a basic book- keeping knowledge and understanding is required.
