Issues of gender and sexuality are intrinsic to people's experience: their sense of identity, their lives and the loving relationships that shape and sustain them. The life and mission of the Church of England - and of the worldwide Anglican Communion - are affected by the deep, and sometimes painful, disagreements about these matters, divisions brought into sharper focus because of society's changing perspectives and practices, especially in relation to LGBTI+ people. Living in Love and Faith sets out to inspire people to think more deeply both about what it means to be human, and to live in love and faith with one another. It tackles the tough questions and the divisions among Christians about what it means to be holy in a society in which understandings and practices of gender, sexuality and marriage continue to change.

Commissioned and led by the Bishops of the Church of England, the Living in Love and Faith project has involved many people across the Church and beyond, bringing together a great diversity and depth of expertise, conviction and experience to explore these matters by studying what the Bible, theology, history and the social and biological sciences have to say. Amid the biblical, theological, historical and scientific exploration, each part includes Encounters with real, contemporary disciples of Christ whose stories raise questions which ask us to discern where God is active in human lives. The book ends with an appeal from the Bishops to join them in a period of discernment and decision-making following the publication of Living in Love and Faith. The Living in Love and Faith book is accompanied by a range of free digital resources including films, podcasts and an online library, together with Living in Love and Faith: The Course, a 5-session course which is designed to help local groups engage with the resources, also published by Church House Publishing.

A l'adolescence, les liens parfois se renforcent... jusqu'à se briser. Depuis l'enfance Rine, Maël et Yano étaient amis. Quand Maël et Yano réalisent qu'ils sont en fait tous les deux amoureux de Rine, ils font un pacte : ne jamais rien tenter avec elle. Mais ni l'un ni l'autre ne tiennent parole, et une tragédie se charge de mettre fin au triangle amoureux, en même temps qu'à l'amitié de l'inséparable trio. La mort de Maël plonge Yano et Rine dans la culpabilité, et les sépare. Des années plus tard, alors que Rine entre à la fac, elle se trouve confrontée au beau et irritant Yano, qui semble lui vouer une haine sans bornes. Alors que Rine veut tout faire pour s'affranchir de leur passé, Yano la met au défi de parvenir à l'oublier. Il l'entraîne dans un jeu étrange, où l'amour et la peur sont exclus, pour la ramener à lui et la garder sous son emprise. Mais qui possède vraiment l'autre ?

Are you struggling to get by? Do you have a troubled relationship with your spouse? Stress from finances? Parenting issues? Does something seem to be missing? If you answered yes to any of these questions, then Houston, we have a revelation problem! As Christians, we are sometimes disconnected from our faith, which can lead to problems in our marriages, our parenting, our finances, and many other facets of our lives. This disconnection can also open the door for a constantly conniving enemy to slip in and corrupt our lives. Dr. Marie C. Gladden, author of Inspiration Connection, takes an honest, faith-based approach to help Christians fix problems in their lives and slam the door shut on that always working enemy, the devil. Dr. Gladden's mix of real-life experience and down-home commonsense solutions provides refreshing and inspirational guidance for Christians seeking a closer relationship with God, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit.

Unfortunately, man's nature complicates things, and we often cheat ourselves out of great joy by doing "our own thing." How sad. There is no doubt God's plan for man includes man's happiness. God teaches us joyful living in at least two places. Biblically it is called "walking in fellowship." This First Epistle of John focuses on "fellowship." A verse-by-verse expository of that valuable material is extremely helpful. Also, the Old Testament prophet Enoch was given to us as a role model. God reduced his life of several years into three short phrases: "He walked with God. He pleased God. He was translated to heaven." God showed his pleasure with his "walk" by taking him up to heaven without his seeing death. Skimming along the surface, modern man has developed a superficial lifestyle. You will see the joy of living a life of "fellowship with God" on God's terms. Clelia. An excellent new romance, etc. Pt. 1-3 translated by J. Davies, pt. 4, 5 by G. Havers Paulist Press

Insightful and heart-warming, this classic book is written for those who seek to know God better. It unfolds life-impacting, biblical truths and has been called a "soul-stirring celebration of the pleasures of knowing God."

Christian teaching and learning about identity, sexuality, relationships and marriage Whitaker House

I call faith, love, and the word my three musketeers. Our confidence and assurance is knowing we can always come to God by faith through Christ Jesus. Faith in the Lord Jesus Christ is the only way to the Father. The ministry of the Lord Jesus Christ is that of love, mercy, and being compassionate to all that came seeking Him. Love is what the kingdom of God is based upon. We can never move mountains unless we have love in our hearts and unless there is an overflow of love in us. The word is Spirit and those who live in the Spirit receive the word and they rejoice. Just like the brain power of the human body so too is the word of God. Without the brain, there is no life. The body is dead. Faith, Love, and Word is a book about the Lord Jesus expounding on His word. May God through Christ Jesus open the eyes of our understanding and quicken our spirit to receive His word in Jesus's mighty name we pray. Amen.

Light in Darkness re-centers theology in God as the focus of the enormous efforts of research in current scholarship. It addresses the way the topic of God is treated—or not treated—in both cultural and religious circles, and even its comparative absence in church communications. A Love Means... Story Raine Baumer is living the party life in Chicago, indulging in short relationships with little emotional commitment. But after he's severely injured in a gay bashing, close friend Geoff arrives to take him to the country to recuperate. There Geoff and his partner Eli treat him like part of the family, and Raine meets Jonah, Eli's brother, who is exploring life in the world outside his Amish community. Jonah and Raine's mutual attraction draws them together, but they may not have a chance to explore it. Jonah's father is making ultimatums, and the police believe that the attack on Raine may not have been as random as it initially appeared. Raine and Jonah will have to face what they fear most in order to have any chance at a life together. Commentary on the New Testament: James, 1-2 Peter, 1-3 John, Jude Whitaker House Experience Freedom by Embracing One Fear—and Releasing All Others It sounds strange, doesn't it? Exchanging your fears for another. Come, trade your worry-filled days and nights for a worshipful life. See how "in the fear of the Lord there is strong confidence" (Proverbs 14:26)—all you need to live courageously and peacefully, even in frightening times.

For every child of God, knowing the heart of our Father in heaven and doing it, is the name of the game. But how can we do what we do not understand? This is the reason for this book. In this book, with the help of the Holy Spirit, we will discover the heart of God on the most important act today. Why is it not just for some people, but for every child of God? Why is it not optional, but a must for every child of God? Do you even know that you might be doing it indirectly already? These and many more will be explored extensively in this book.

Domestic Bible. The Holy Bible ... with the marginal references and the usual various readings. With notes ... by the Rev. Ingram Cobbin. Illustrated, etc Charisma Media

In this no non-sense book, reliable spiritual guide, Will Willimon, invites readers to consider the gospel command to love (and not merely tolerate) those considered to be "Other" or outside mainstream Christian culture. Rooted in the faith of Israel and the Christian story and vision, Willimon brings a Wesleyan perspective to bear on what may be the hardest thing for people of faith to do: keeping and loving the "Other" as they are - without any need for them to become like us. Emphasizing biblical teaching to receive Others for who they are and their differences as gifts and mysteries bearing the grace of God, Willimon also offers a strong critique of the privileged who all too often rush to speak of reconciliation and evade the injustice of huge inequalities faced by foreigners and strangers - as well as the antagonism the stranger experiences. He identifies concrete, everyday ways persons are formed in welcoming others without annihilating their differences. Rooted in the New Testament understanding of Gentile outsiders grafted into the covenant community, Willimon invites readers to an on-the-ground faith that remembers the God who comes to us again and again through so-called outsiders, strangers, immigrants, and those without status. Beyond welcome, Christians must become "other" to the world, shaking off the dominant culture's identity and privilege through practices of listening, humility, and understanding. "I love Will Willimon, and I love this book. Will writes with prophetic sarcasm, a touch of humor, plenty of self-effacement, and a pastor's heart. And his words will make you laugh, cringe, cry, confess, and repent. This is a very timely book. I urge you, prospective reader, as you read this blurb on the back cover: buy and read it! You'll be grateful you did." —Adam Hamilton, senior pastor, The United Methodist Church of the Resurrection, Leawood, KS; author of Half Truths "This gutsy, biblically rich, theologically searing book by Willimon gigs everybody's sacred cow. Not only is the one whom Christ loves Other but God is Other. The ground beneath us shakes the walls that divide us. If you are holed-up happy with people who look like you, don't read this thing. It will screw up your world." —Tex Sample, Robert B. and Kathleen Rogers Professor Emeritus of Church and Society, Saint Paul School of Theology, Leawood, KS "Timely and prophetic, Willimon's call to love the Other will quickly take hold of your soul, changing your preaching and your life. This book is not just a reminder of our Christian calling to welcome the Other but a call to conversion, a new way of seeing the neighbor and a new way of being in the world God desperately loves.” —Karoline M. Lewis, Marbury E. Anderson Chair of Biblical Preaching, Luther Seminary, St. Paul, MN

“Bishop Willimon’s new book should come with a warning: Do not read unless you are ready to be changed and want to change the world!” —O. Wesley Allen Jr., Lois Craddock Perkins Professor of Homiletics, Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University, Dallas, TX

When you're asking all the right questions and still don't seem to get an answer, you can find yourself feeling frustrated, unfulfilled, and confused. That's when it's time to consider that just maybe you're asking the wrong people! In this book, Marshall James shares how wrong teaching and wrong understanding leads to deception and can impose limitations that keep many believers from experiencing the fullness of the Kingdom of God right here on earth. Poverty does not please God nor does it draw us closer to him. We must embrace our rightful place in the Kingdom and live in the fullness of God's Blessing here on earth as it was intended. Marshall shares the secrets that God revealed to him through His Word that unlocked the windows of heaven and allowed the supernatural abundance of the Kingdom to flow into his life! As you read this book and really begin to study and meditate on God's Word, you will understand that there's nothing more powerful or life changing than an idea whose time has come! When we seek God's Kingdom first, He will unveil mysteries; and once there's a revelation from God's Word, revolution is inevitable!

Moving Mountains and Slaying Dragons Lori Hawkins

This is a cruel, heartless world with no respect for life, love, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Often characteristics of fear and paranoia develop as a way of coping with painful mental and emotional experiences. Many are trapped in the prison of fear, anxiety, doubt, intense outbursts, paranoia, unfulfilled relationships, or broken hearts. Fearful people often gravitate to one another for comfort and support. But their destructive habits do not produce the loving relationships they desperately need. Even though it seems reasonable to fear, Jesus does not want us to be consumed with it. Replace the heartbreak of fear with characteristics of faith that transform lives and relationships. It's important to reject fearful thoughts as we draw strength in a close relationship with Jesus that gives us the power to love, forgive, and trust others in a more excellent way. The life skills found in biblical scripture are keys to healing. First, we must find love, peace, comfort, and security in our relationship with Jesus Christ. Then these qualities spill over into our love lives. It doesn't happen the other way around. These are principles of health and healing:

- Submit our lives completely to the teaching of the Jesus.
- Identify with Biblical promises of peace to calm our fears.
- In the process of self-examination, forgive ourselves.
- In the process of examining our relationships, forgive others.
- Apply God's principle of love, wisdom, and faith in romance and marriage.
- Trust God's power in the midst of fearful circumstances.

- Pray daily about the details of our love lives.
