Authored by nationally recognized scholar and behavioral consultant
Dr. John W. Maag, this book focuses primarily
on students'
observable behaviors
and the environmental factors that affect their expression. As Maag
points out, behavior
management is probably one of the most misunderstood
concepts in education.
Written in a very accessible style, this book demystifies
stereotypical beliefs
and misconceptions
regarding the use of
reinforcement,
punishment, and self-
control. Maag offers clear, but detailed

descriptions of proven
intervention
techniques,
supplemented by a
range of step-by-step
guidelines, sample
forms, charts, graphs,
and illustrations that
assist teachers in implementing the techniques. Although the techniques
described in the book
are based on a sound theoretical and
empirical foundation,
the author limits the use of technical jargon and infuses real-life
examples and case studies that clarify and illuminate the presentation.

 Acclaimed author Sam Sykes returns with the second thrilling novel in his Bring Down Heaven series. The heart of civilization bleeds. Cier'Djaal, once the crowning glory of the civilized world, has gone from a city to a battlefield and a battlefield to a graveyard. Foreign armies clash relentlessly on streets laden with the bodies of innocents caught in the crossfire. Cultists and thieves wage shadow wars, tribal armies foment outside the city's walls, and haughty aristocrats watch the world burn from on high. As his companions struggle to keep the city from destroying itself, Lenk travels to the Forbidden East in search of the demon who caused it all. But even as he pursues Khoth-Kapira, dark whispers plague his thoughts. Khoth-Kapira promises him a world free of war where Lenk can put down his sword at last. And Lenk finds it hard not to listen. When gods are deaf, demons will speak.

The linking of research and action, basic methods of social research, and the uses of research in distance teaching are examined, with examples drawn from the Lesotho Distance Teaching Centre and other distance teaching programs. Ways in which research can be useful and early stages of research design and planning are discussed. An explanation of basic research methods describes observation and discussion techniques and then details the steps involved in conducting social surveys, including sampling, creating questionnaires, survey fieldwork, data processing, and checking and reporting survey results. Experimental research is also addressed, and basic statistical concepts are introduced. Suggestions for applications of research in distance teaching settings relate to assessing instructional materials, pre-testing instructional materials, keeping regular records, and evaluation. Appendices contain additional information on statistical procedures, statistical theory, and costing, and an annotated list of 20 recommended readings.
