Woman's World Good Press

When the broad, smooth, well-lit highway of everyday reality takes an abrupt detour into the shadowy byways of the preternatural, signposts can no longer be relied upon. The extraordinary becomes the usual. Fate is in the hands of FORCES UNSEEN. Is the house at 99 SYCAMORE CIRCLE haunted, as everyone claims, or is it animated by something else? An abused child discovers an enchanted spring in the woods. What will BENJI do with the WISH the spring grants him? THE MAN WHO LOVED TREES is a true child of nature, a reclusive old man who lives in the forest. When the people of a nearby town kill him, nature reacts. APRIL AND JUNE are two sisters devoted to one another. After June is murdered, she reaches back from beyond the grave to save her sister from a similar fate. Jens De Bekker is a GAMBLER in debt to a loan shark. His problems multiply when he employs the dark powers of an evil entity to repay his debt. Dan feels lucky when he finally finds a decent place to live. Unfortunately, his new APARTMENT has a serious bug problem: the flesh-eating kind. The CAVE is the story of a wealthy but bored and unfulfilled man, Mike Dodge, who craves excitement through dangerous pursuits like spelunking. When he finds himself trapped by a cave-in, he explores the rest of the cavern and is delighted to discover another way out. However, when he finally walks into the sunlight, he finds that he is no longer in the present but in the North America of 17,000 years ago.

More Than a Coincidence The Seer's DaughterUpon returning to her hometown for her grandmother's funeral, Sage Matthews is terrorized by a series of strange events. She dismisses each eerie occurrence as a by-product of her overwrought emotional state, until it becomes chillingly clear that something not of this world is desperate to get a message--or is it a warning?--through to her... Detective Sergeant Ethan Blade comes to Cryton, South Australia, to catch a serial killer. When Ethan meets Sage--the latest victim's beautiful granddaughter--his attraction to her is explosive and inconvenient. He knows she's not crazy, but Sage's theory about the murders is unbelievable. With the handsome detective rejecting her ideas, Sage embarks on the supernatural journey that her grandmother started. What she discovers shatters everything Sage ever knew about herself--and who she really is. Ethan's routine case quickly turns personal when he discovers Sage is the killer's next target. For her, he'll break all the rules and cross every line. But how can he protect Sage from an evil he cannot even conceive of?Girl UnseenWhen Pia Williams, a gifted psychic medium, is contacted by the traumatized spirit of a young girl, her search to uncover the truth begins. The more Pia learns about the girl's gruesome fate, the more determined she is to bring those responsible to justice. But is she prepared for the shocking truth of what she's about to expose? With more questions than answers, one thing becomes clear to Pia: the girl's spirit is uniquely powerful, and she's killing from beyond the grave. Who--or what--is the girl now? A victim, or a demon with murderous intentions? What really happened to her? And how far will Pia go to help her get revenge? Accused of a murder the spirit commits, Pia reaches out to the only man who can help her: ex-Special Forces detective Nate Ryder. A man who is as dangerous to her heart as the situation she seeks his help with. Nate would move mountains for the woman he loves, but how can he protect her against forces he can't even see? As Pia and Nate are swept into an unpredictable situation brimming with dark, evil intent, they soon discover they have more to fear from the living than they ever did from the dead...The Scream Behind Her SmileIt's one thing to realize the man you married isn't who you believe him to be. It's another thing entirely to prove it. After all, who's going to take the word of an unstable woman who's never fully recovered from the heartbreak of losing her child? Child Life in Chinese Homes [London] : The Religious Tract Society

For anyone who has been visited by a ghost, been spoken to by a spirit, or need to know more about the paranormal this book is for you. Even if you haven't experienced something paranormal then this book is also for you, definitely not a journey to be missed.As a child of six I was unaware that the vision of a ghost and the whispering of voices were coming from beyond the grave. At eleven years old I was haunted by a voice telling me to say 'goodbye' to my sister - she wasn't coming back.Child, teenager, adult, the battles were always there. I lived in fear of ghosts and the voices from beyond the grave. That fear turned to love as I grew to learn and understand more about ghosts and spirits. The battle with the 'Living' continues as I question why scientific research after two hundred years has seen little progress in the way those with psychic functioning abilities are tested. I battle to understand why millions of people who claim to communicate with the dead, or have witnessed something paranormal are so easily dismissed by professional career debunkers. Where does science fit in amongst those with psychic functioning and spirituality as an orthodox religion? Let the journey begin. "What stories, events, emotions – no fiction can match the story of Carole's sister, the abject fear and terror of her youth, the casual disdain from so called intelligent people, and at the end, having learnt to adjust, managing her talents to the benefit of mankind. If you wish to disbelieve this book, you will succeed. If you have an open mind, this book will make you think. I am still thinking!" Professor Ray J Paul, author of Living with Parkinson's Disease: Shake, Rattle and Roll (2009)"A compelling read!What a journey from dark to light. This book shares in the wonders of working with spirit and opens our eyes beyond this earthly world."Jackie Weaver, 'The Animal Psychic': Amazon Best-Selling Amazon author of Animal Insight.

This book offers new insights on socially and culturally engaged Gothic ghost stories by twentieth century and contemporary female writers; including Shirley Jackson, Angela Carter, Toni Morrison, Ali Smith, Susan Hill, Catherine Lim, Kate Mosse, Daphne du Maurier, Helen Dunmore, Michele Roberts, and Zheng Cho. Through the ghostly body, possessions and visitations, women's ghost stories expose links between the political and personal, genocides and domestic tyrannies, providing unceasing reminders of violence and violations. Women, like ghosts, have historically lurked in the background, incarcerated in domestic spaces and roles by familial and hereditary norms. They have been disenfranchised legally and politically, sold on dreams of romance and domesticity. Like unquiet spirits that cannot be silenced, women's ghost stories speak the unspeakable, revealing these contradictions and oppressions. Wisker's book demonstrates that in terms of women's ghost stories, there is much to point the spectral finger at and much to speak out about.

ALA Book Club October Pick, 2018 Casey Maldonado is haunted by the deaths of her husband and young son. She hopes traveling through the vast reaches of Idaho will offer peace. Instead, she fights off three drunken locals before escaping to a quiet town where she wants to heal from her injuries and constant sorrow. Her traveling companion, invisible to all but Casey, is Death, wearing a series of disguises and offering expert commentary on her difficulties. Unfortunately, the village of Armstrong carries its own darkness. Casey finds a job and a comfortable guest room with the proprietor of the small general store, Vern and his ill wife, Dottie. Death keeps a close watch on Casey. She's surrounded by trouble. She captures a teen spray-painting nasty graffiti on the store's wall. The town shuns Dottie and blames Vern for jilting his fiancée to marry an outsider—forty-five years ago. The woman's still stalking Vern today. Casey finds a hateful letter accusing Dottie of tragedy based on a Halloween party, a fatality, and a woman missing for forty-five years. Residents ignore the couple at a free outdoor movie they sponsor. Casey stops another attempt to spray-paint graffiti on the store. Danger and cruelty range free beneath the calm surface of the town. When Dottie dies in the hospital, brutality overrides grief. A resident notifies the three attackers, who arrive to finish what they started with Casey. Finally, the painful truth explodes in violence based on revenge.

It is the autumn of 1888. Following the successful conclusion of the investigation into the affair of the Hound of the Baskervilles, Sherlock Holmes and Dr Watson have returned from Dartmoor, little realising that fate will see them back in Devon before the year is out. Holmes receives a potentially lethal package, the first strand in the tangled skein, which he will need to unravel before this new adventure is resolved. A threat to Holmes' life, murders on Hampstead Heath, and a strange phantom lady lead Holmes and Watson into the most dangerous investigation they have ever undertaken - an encounter which brings them face to face with evil itself, embodied in Count Dracula, the Lord of the Undead.

Rachel Sommers and her two best friends don't believe anything will happen when they sneak onto a haunted shipwreck in the middle of the night. Why would they? Ghosts don't actually exist... right? But Rachel and her friends disturb something that night. Something demonic. Something that lured Rachel to the ship. And now one of her friends is dead, the other is missing, and Rachel's memory of the night is gone. There's only one thing she knows for sure: whatever killed her friend has followed her home. Over a century ago, an act of bitter jealousy and revenge tainted a crystal ball with an unstoppable evil. And when the deadly object eerily turns up in her bedroom, Rachel's nightmare really begins. Ex-Special Forces detective Daniel Smith takes the case the moment Rachel's name appears on his screen. Rachel is the only woman he's ever loved, but despite their explosive chemistry, she's determined to keep him at a distance. With Rachel's life on the line, the disturbing truth about her ancestry and the cursed object she has inherited must be uncovered. But is it already too late? Daniel will risk everything to save the woman he loves, but how can he win this lethal game of cat and mouse against a killer that is not flesh and blood?

Girl Unseen

Mysterious angels who appear when you need them most, a dream that helped save a life, a voice from beyond the grave-these are just a few of the "coincidences" in the stories you are about to read. For some people, these are signs from a relative who has passed, connections to the "real world," showing that we are always loved. Joyce Kocinski has compiled a collection of stories that encourage you to notice the miracles around you that happen every day. The authors share their sometimes heartbreaking testimonies to inspire us and strengthen our faith. You may think of what path you are on in your life and how there are guiding hands to lead you along the way. You will be comforted and inspired by these stories including: -- A young mother who vows to trust God, quits her full-time job to stay home with her children and begins finding money in all kinds of unlikely places. -- A court-appointed children's advocate, inspired by a tragedy in her own life, who diagnoses a grave medical condition in a child and saves his life. -- A deaf woman awakened by an apparition of her mother who saves her baby's life. -- An ICU nurse contemplating suicide finds redemption through one of her patients. -- A woman rescued during a roll over car accident by an unseen angel.
