(PDF) A fertilidade ancestral em "Poncia Vivencio" Abstract. This paper looks at parallels in the articulation of memory and trauma between Toni Morrison's Beloved and the more recent publication Poncia Vicencio, written in 2003 by the Afro-Brazilian writer Conceição Evaristo. It examines the novels' illustration of slavery trauma and the creative investment of descendants of slaves in re-presenting traumatic family history.

Poncia Vicencio should stir the literary waters and create a readership not only for Evaristo, but for this emerging and important segment of writers.
