14th FEB: A LOVE STORY

NASH AVILAIndia Retold Random House India

14th February is Valentine's Day - a day dedicated for love. Love creates life, sustains life and transforms life and one has to experience all this, without which life has no meaning. The protagonist of this story, Sanjay, is the only son of a middle-class family in Chennai. He is studious and intelligent and is living a dream life, topping in his board examinations, studying at IIT and getting to the magical paradise of America for a bright future. The only thing that has eluded him in this journey is true love, for which he craves and when he thinks he has met the woman of his dreams and he has everything in life, his world collapses, as he is condemned as an introvert, predictable and a boring guy and his partner leaves him. That changes his life forever and he becomes depressed. He heads back to his hometown, a decision that makes him understand the tough realities of life. Now having returned from America, Sanjay finds himself mercilessly condemned and ridiculed by his own fellowmen. The mentality of the people pushes him into further depression and he becomes a recluse. That's when an angel walks into his life, transforms him and leads him to all the good things in life. He falls in love and on Valentine's Day, as he waits for his angel, he realises the value of this true love, the love that will last forever...

Love—only a four letter word, yet it's so powerful that it can conquer anything in this world! We've all experienced the first flush of love and remember the lingering fragrance of it. For ages Love has remained one of the most cherished experiences that everyone wishes to live through at least once. Humanity, time and again, has coined many definitions to describe this beautiful emotion, but this small word is a feeling that can't simply be defined. It has to be narrated . . . in the form of stories—love stories. Love Stories That Touched My Heart is a collection of such stories from readers who have a tale to tell, shortlisted from over 2000 entries that were submitted in a competition conducted by Penguin India. Selected and edited by Ravinder Singh, this anthology—made up of the stories that touched Ravin's heart the most—will make you believe that someone, somewhere, is made for you.

Radha has an imaginary Friend-in-Mind. Salman Khan. Err, yes. THE Salman Khan. THE Superstar Salman Khan. If Calvin can have an imaginary playmate Hobbes, what's stopping Radha from having Salman Khan as her imaginary Friend-in-Mind? So what if he's the heartthrob of millions? So what if he's beyond her wildest reach despite living in Mumbai? So Radha leads her ordinary life, sharing her journey with her Friend-in-Mind Salman, through 20 years of a break-up bhari Zindagani. Life becomes very filmy for Radha, when she falls in love with the Friendly Neighborhood RJ. Yes, if she can have Salman Khan as her imaginary friend, she could do something equally filmy, such as falling in love with the voice of a RJ. Will Mr. RJ reciprocate? He's reluctant, what else? But Radha has already found his favour. Unwittingly, being his favorite listener, Radha has now won a contest, and the prize is... A Date with Salman Khan. Oops! Now what?

This is the author's first book, he is a late-bloomer. Sanjiv is a former banker like many illustrious writers of our era! Save one experimental story, Chowringhee, the rest are true stories picked across the country during his peripatetic employ, and they presumably live up to the genre's promise of being stranger than fiction. You'll find here Meghalaya, Kerala, Goa, not to forget the author's birthplace, Delhi. You'll find all shades of emotion there, blessed with the inevitable, electrifying denouement. Imitating Money Heist, the stories have been named as per their approximate location. Two of them have been published in the Shillong Times. The author who is “unparalleled in the world of romantic fiction” beautifully evokes all the complexities of modern-day India—and the human heart (Kristan Higgins). Her name means “miracle” in Sanskrit, and to her parents, that's exactly what Kimaya is. The first baby to survive after several miscarriages, Kimi grows up in a mansion at the top of Mumbai's Pali Hill, surrounded by love and privilege. But at eleven years old, she develops a rare illness that requires her to be confined to a germ-free ivory tower in her home, with only the Arabian Sea churning outside her window for company . . . until one person dares venture into her world. Tasked at fourteen years old with supporting his family, Rahul Savant shows up to wash Kimi's windows, and an unlikely friendship develops across the plastic curtain of her isolation room. As years pass, Rahul becomes Kimi's eyes to the outside world—and she becomes his inspiration to better himself by enrolling in the police force. But when a life-saving heart transplant offers the chance of a real future, both must face all that ties them together—and all that keeps them apart . . . A darkly fascinating snapshot of the glittering and brittle lives of the rich and famous of Delhi, its glamorous page 3 swish-set The Great Indian Love Story is set in a world where appearances mean everything and nothing is as it seems. There's no time for love in a world that revolves around the latest Ferraris, the hottest nightclubs, diamonds, single malts, cocaine and ecstasy. In this whirl of wild parties, sex and drugs we meet Serena Sharma who lives her life one debauched night at a time, always falling for the wrong men. Her life is a roller-coaster ride: her father's death followed by her mother's remarriage, a broken heart and a lost love. Adding to this is her torrid affair with Amar Khanna—a trophy husband, coke addict and serial adulterer. Riya, jaded by her unsuccessful attempt to find a job in America, returns to Delhi to find the city of her childhood changed beyond recognition. Striking an unlikely friendship with Serena, Riya finds her complacent torpor shattered. The Great Indian Love Story is also the story of Parmeet, Serena's mother, who looks for passion outside her marriage with disastrous consequences, and S.P. Sharma, Parmeet's husband, who is driven to violence by her infidelity. Ira Trivedi weaves together sex, revenge, glitz, friendship and a chilling murder to create a potent cocktail in this gripping novel on the perfidious nature of love and power.
