An essential emotional literacy tool for children with 60+ definitions inside! Join Aroha and her friends as they share how different emotions feel in the body and find the words for how they truly feel! A useful resource for parents, carers and educators to help children recognise, label and understand their many emotions. Notable Book in the Storylines Children's Literature Trust of NZ Book Awards 2021 Finalist in the 2022 NZ Book Awards for Children & Young Adults (Elsie Locke Award for Non-Fiction) 'This book is a much-needed tool for children and those caring for them. By showing that a wide range of emotions each have their own unique value and purposes, this book helps to both normalise and encourage understanding towards the big emotions and feelings that, although sometimes demonised, are experienced by each and every one of us at some point in our lives.' — DANIELLE WHITBURN, Mental Health Foundation of New Zealand

Suzuki Violin School - Volume 2 (Revised) Wentworth Press

Lucy Nash has just finished up her sophomore year of high school and is anticipating an uneventful summer at her rural Georgia home. . . that is, until a weird twist of fate and physics takes her on a trip back through time to the year 1975 with Cameron Hall, a boy her age whose own time is thirty years into her future. Cameron is hoping to stop a series of child disappearances, one of which deeply affected his family, and ends up teaming up with his accidental "passenger" to solve the crime. But despite their access to resources from the future, can two teenagers resolve a mystery that has remained a cold case for over sixty years. . . and what impact will their presence in the past have on their own lives - and their own futures?
