This book tells the untold story of the fight to defend slavery in the British Empire. Drawing on a wide range of sources, from art, poetry, and literature, to propaganda, scientific studies, and parliamentary papers, Proslavery Britain explores the many ways in which slavery's defenders helped shape the processes of abolition and emancipation. It finds that proslavery arguments and rhetoric were carefully crafted to justify slavery, defend the colonies, and attack the abolition movement at the height of the slavery debates.

How can cancer be funny? How can a writer bring you to tears of sorrow as her mother gives her to God and yet cause you to laugh out loud as she may die on grape juice! Peck has managed to instill in us those feelings. Somehow this first-time author grabs us and pulls our heart strings with such deep feelings of understanding the sorrow of her cancer to shaking our heads with laughter as we listen to her head voice describe her feelings. You want her to succeed as she takes that first bite of sandwich or plucks on the strings of her guitar. You will fall in love with Letty as she takes you along her challenging, miraculous journey of cancer. She beat the odds! Travel with her as she struggles through the many trails given to her, laugh with her as she dances through the tango of survival. Feel the hope and love she discovers as God lays his plan out for her of sharing her faith of survival through her love of storytelling and music. You will feel as if she is talking just to you as she unravels her tale. You can even pick up a few ideas on how to cope with cancer for yourself or you loved one. Come and learn to laugh at cancer with this book of wit, meaning, hope, and trust in God

 After years out of print, this new and redesigned book brings back the best and most complete history of the Women's Army Corps. Loaded with history, tables, charts, statistics, photos, personalities, and many useful appendices (including a history of WAC uniforms), The Women's Army Corps, 1945-1978 is must reading for anyone who served those years in the Army as well as for those who want a complete history of the modern-day military. Author Bettie Morden served from 1942-1972 and she used her experience and access to people and records to compile the definitive reference work. Col. Morden is a graduate of the WAC Officers' Advanced Course (1962); Command and General Staff College (1964); and the Army Management School (1965). She has been awarded the Distinguished Service Medal, the Legion of Merit, the Joint Service Commendation Medal, and the Army Commendation Medal with Oak Leaf Cluster.

A groundbreaking contribution to the history of the "long Civil Rights movement," Hammer and Hoe tells the story of how, during the 1930s and 40s, Communists took on Alabama's repressive, racist police state to fight for economic justice, civil and political rights, and racial equality. The Alabama Communist Party was made up of working people without a Euro-American radical political tradition: devoutly religious and semiliterate black laborers and sharecroppers, and a handful of whites, including unemployed industrial workers, housewives, youth, and renegade liberals. In this book, Robin D. G. Kelley reveals how the experiences and identities of these people from Alabama's farms, factories, mines, kitchens, and city streets shaped the Party's tactics and unique political culture. The result was a remarkably resilient movement forged in a racist world that had little tolerance for radicals. After discussing the book's origins and impact in a new preface written for this twenty-fifth-anniversary edition, Kelley reflects on what a militantly antiracist, radical movement in the heart of Dixie might teach contemporary social movements confronting rampant inequality, police violence, mass incarceration, and neoliberalism.
