 For a child, every day is a thing of wonder. And for six-year-old Lily Lapp, every day is a new opportunity for blessings, laughter, family, and a touch of mischief. As she explores her world, goes to school, spends time with her family, and gets into a bit of trouble with her friends, Lily learns what it means to be Amish and what it means to grow up. From getting a new teacher to welcoming a new sibling, Lily's life is always full of adventure. The first of four charming novels that chronicle the gentle way of the Amish through the eyes of a young girl, Life with Lily gives children ages 8-12 a fascinating glimpse into the life of the Amish--and lots of fun and laughter along the way. It combines the real-life stories of growing up Amish from Mary Ann Kinsinger and the bestselling writing of Amish fiction and nonfiction author Suzanne Woods Fisher. With charming illustrations throughout, this series is sure to capture the hearts of readers young and old.

When Regina was a little girl, she was funny, cheeky, and happy. She loved to play pranks, go on adventures, and have some fun--and these three stories will tell you about some of that fun In "The Little Chick," Regina's curiosity gets the better of her when she finds a roost of chickens at her school. "The Mountain Monster" lives in this fun family trip to their house in the mountains. What's under her bed? Regina loves a good scare. When she goes on a haunted house ride at a fun park, she gets a little more than she bargained for--and so do the ghouls--in "The Ghost House." Written as a gift for the author's daughter, Naughty Nana will delight kids of all ages, especially those between the ages of four and eight.

Nora and Mrs. Mind-Your-Own Business

 The inspiration for this series of reflections initially came from Tim O'Brien's collection of short stories reflecting on his time in Vietnam called The Things They Carried. In these stories we don't just hear about the physical things that the soldiers carry, but also their terrors and dreams. The author has taken this idea and applied it to the Passion, focussing on the things that Jesus carried: not just the cross itself, but the crown of thorns he was forced to wear, the seamless robe that was taken from him, the other burdens that we laid upon him, and also the hopes and fears that he carried in his heart and that are reflected in the different passion narratives. The idea was further developed for the 2006 Good Friday 'Three Hours' service at St Paul's Cathedral and it is these reflections that have now been expanded and developed into this book. Suitable for Lenten study, either for groups or individuals, the engagingly written meditations will have a life beyond Lent and will bear repeated reading.
