...Volume one contains the manga's first fourteen chapters, so it's a hefty introduction to the series. My Brother's Husband revolves around Yaichi, a Japanese single father, Kana, his daughter, and Mike, the husband of Yaichi's dead brother Ryoji. The manga begins with Mike coming to Japan in order to see where Ryoji grew up, and over the course of the volume Yaichi must confront his homophobia and that of Japanese society at large. My Brother's Husband Vol. 1 Review

- AIPT My Brother's Husband is an award-winning manga created by Gengoroh Tagame, a mangaka known for his works targeted towards gay men. My Brother's Husband marks his first foray into creating an all-ages title and his uncluttered art style and straightforward writing lends itself well to the didactic nature of the story he's telling, making this a very accessible exploration of the issues ... My Brother's Husband Series Review - Al's Manga Blog Vol. 1 ★★★★★. Vol. 2 ★★★★★. My Brother's Husband has to be one of the most precious, heartwarming, lovable things I've ever read in my life. I was totally smitten from the very first page, and that feeling only grew stronger with each passing moment. My Brother's Husband, Volume 1 by Gengoroh Tagame was originally serialised in Monthly Action magazine in 2014-7, and published in official English translation in two volumes (double the length of the volumes of the four-volume Japanese collections) in 2017-8 (an oversized single-volume edition came out in 2020). A live-action TV adaptation was broadcast in 2018 on NHK BS Premium. My Brother's Husband (Manga) - TV Tropes This volume: Somewhere between 3 and 4 stars. Series as a whole: 5 stars. When Yaichi's estranged twin brother Ryoji dies and his husband shows up at his door he must face his prejudice as both men try to connect Ryoji's world. My brother's husband is sweet and heartfelt story but also basic introduction to LGBT world and their problems. My Brother's Husband, Volume 3 by Gengoroh Tagame My Brother's Husband Volume 1 is a light, charming, and enjoyable read. It's funny that it's coming from a mangaka who's known for writing very dark and sexual manga that often involve torture and bathroom kinks, because this comic is almost the polar opposite of that.
