Those Who Pretend Dag Heward-Mills

Those who pretend to be something they are not, are a great danger to the church. They are the ones who are most likely to be exposed and disgraced. They are the ones who are most likely to be the cause of a church's downfall. They are the ones who are most likely to be the cause of a church's destruction. They are the ones who are most likely to be the cause of a church's ruin. They are the ones who are most likely to be the cause of a church's collapse. They are the ones who are most likely to be the cause of a church's demise. They are the ones who are most likely to be the cause of a church's end. They are the ones who are most likely to be the cause of a church's destruction. They are the ones who are most likely to be the cause of a church's ruin. They are the ones who are most likely to be the cause of a church's collapse. They are the ones who are most likely to be the cause of a church's demise. They are the ones who are most likely to be the cause of a church's end.

How do you fight an enemy that you cannot see? This question is the reason why Dag Heward-Mills wrote this book, because it is impossible to fight an enemy who can see you when you are not even aware of them! The key to success in your church or anywhere, is loyalty. In Leaders and Loyalty the affect of a loyal person on business or ministry are tremendous. "Qualifications do not impress me as much as loyalty does," says Heward-Mills. The author exposes deceptions of disloyalty – and as usual provides great practical examples – and reveals the keys to develop godly loyalty. The research that is shared, combined with the Bishop's personal experience, provides the reader with an excellent insight into the reality of leadership. The six manifestations of disloyalty, seven methods of dealing with disloyalty and the basic facts of loyalty are discussed.

Those Who Leave You Dag Heward-Mills

Rebellious people do not remember what has been done for them and often choose to forget certain things. Judas did not remember what the Lord had done for him, neither did he remember the things he had seen and heard from Jesus. That is why he became the despicable character we know today as 'Judas'. The ability to remember is one of the most important spiritual qualities a minister can have. People who do not remember, rarely do well. They simply fail to rise to certain heights. This special book, on this rarely discussed topic is a gift from God to you.
